

Strange Object Sighted

'VISITOR' FROM OUTER SPACE

Falling Object Baffles Area Residents

By STANLEY ZAWADZKI
(Mercury Staff Writer)

What was it?

A plane going down in flames, a space-traveling visitor from beyond our atmosphere, a flying saucer?

Whatever it was, scores of Pottstown area residents saw it last night and declared they had "never seen anything like it before."

Scientists gathering the first skimpy reports guessed it was a visitor from outer space. A small meteor, they said.

In the mountains of Northern Pennsylvania 150 men banded together in a search party to find the remains of "the flaming plane," a farmer had seen disappearing downward beyond his farm, the Associated Press reported.

In a three-state area airport control tower men checked back and forth and reassured one another, "Nope, no plane in trouble."

IN GILBERTSVILLE, two men said it was a flying saucer. The first report of the phenomenon reached The Mercury at 6:30 p. m.

Mrs. John Heidenreich, Pottstown RD 4, made the call.

"My husband and I just saw a meteor," she said. "It was flaming red and came down like a skyrocket."

"Our farm is beyond Sanatoga. My husband saw it first. We were bringing in the cows when he hollered, 'See the plane coming down.' I looked up and said, 'No, it isn't a plane. That's a meteor.'"

"It was flaming red and seemed to come down somewhere between Sanatoga and Pottstown. It looked like it landed not far from Memorial hospital. It looked like a rocket ship."

ANOTHER call came in from Peter Wise, Pottstown RD 2.

"I looked up and saw it coming right down across the sky. Its front end was round and it had a tail that sort of flickered. It was sort of whitish-yellow."

"I think it lasted about five to seven seconds. It was about half as big as the moon. It faded out before it hit the ground."

Douglas Chapman, 408 Beech street, saw it.

"I was down at Edgewood cemetery. I looked up and saw it. It was all lit up. The head was round and pretty bright, then it had a tail, like a lot of little stars in back of it."

"It was brighter than any star I had ever seen. It fell over toward Boyertown."

OTHER REPORTS came in from Linfield and Royersford.

From Gilbertsville, Mrs. Lester Godshall called.

She said her husband and another man saw what they were positive was a flying saucer. The flaming streak tailed perfectly with descriptions they had read.

Quick checks to observatories in Philadelphia and airport towers in nearby cities revealed that the mysterious object had been sighted in Philadelphia, Wilmington, Del., Allentown, Harrisburg and Reading.

With the first reports of the fiery objects on hand, Walter W. Marsteller, instructor of astronomy and physics at Ursinus college, was quizzed.

"All I can make is an educated guess," he said. "I didn't see it myself."

"From the reports it sounds like a rather large meteor. The smaller bright objects trailing it could have been pieces of the meteor itself, melted from the surface when hit by the friction of our atmosphere."

"The speed at which it apparently was traveling rules out a comet. You've got to check a minute to see whether it has moved or not."

"From the wide area in which it was seen and because it was heading in a south to north direction, I'd say it probably didn't land in the locality. From the light it made it apparently was a good-sized meteor and when one of those lands, it makes a thump."

"Chances are someone would have heard or seen it land if it hit anywhere near here."

"It sounds as if it could have been traveling around 35 to 40 miles a second. If it lasted about five or seven seconds it could have hit somewhere in New York or Canada."

"Of course, it's possible it didn't strike the earth at all, but streaked right through our atmosphere and out again."

Several hours later the Collegeville scientist's estimate on a possible landing spot for the celestial object looked pretty close to the mark.

An Associated Press report said Daniel Haskins, who farms almost on the Pennsylvania-New York line, reported a plane down in flames near his farm.

A party of 150 men, almost the entire town of Westfield, organized a search party and scoured the Allegheny mountain area near that Tioga county community.

After two and a half hours, the men found no trace of the plane and gave up the search.

Other rumors of a plane crash were reported at Coudersport, Potter county, but State police were unable to find any definite clue (Continued on Page Twelve)

How Local Police Held Breath, Won

The story you are about to read of the released young men.

It's the story of how Pottstown's police department recently held its breath for 24 hours.

It all started with a barroom brawl on Hanover street. What started the brawl is probably forever lost along with the alcoholic fumes that floated soggily away from the establishment the next morning.

Two young men were arrested as a result of that fight. They were booked on charges of disorderly conduct. They were locked up in the borough hall jail for the night.

THE NEXT morning, after many policemen had had a chance to look at the arrest slips, the two youths were given a hearing before a Pottstown justice of the peace.

They were each fined $10 and costs. One of the young men didn't have the money to pay his fine so the justice told him to come back the next day and pay the fine. He was supposed to return at 5 p. m.

That night, as several policemen were talking in the desk sergeant's office in borough hall, one of them happened to look at the arrest slips on the desk.

"Say, isn't this the guy that the Army is looking for?" he asked, holding up the arrest slip of one of the released young men.

"Naw," the others chimed in. "I'll bet it is," said the other officer. "Let's check the 'fliers.'"

("Fliers") are sheets of paper set out by the Army or the FBI or some agency which notifies police that a certain man is being sought.

So the officers checked the "fliers," which were in the chief's office.

And sure enough. The man the police had just released was the man who was being sought by the Army for alleged desertion.

The officers present shook their heads, took a deep breath, and held it.

Hot-Rod Drive, Auto Crash Take Newstop Awards

A Pottstown policewoman's drive on hot-rodgers, and auto accidents of area residents on out-of-area roads provided the newstop that won most of the easy extra cash yesterday in The Mercury's weekly contest.

Once again, the strong field of entries prompted judges to award two cash bonus prizes in addition to the three prizes worth $10 that they award every week.

Russell Cullum, 281 Prospect street, won first prize of $5 for calling 6000 (The Mercury switchboard) with a tip on the drive that Mrs. Minerva Bachman, policewoman, was making against local hot-rodgers who she thought were endangering school children she was on duty to protect.

Upper Pottsgrove Wants To Hear Discussions On Topic

PLANS TO APPOINT MEETING DELEGATES

Upper Pottsgrove school board is interested "in listening" to talk of a Pottstown area school jointure.

The board, at a meeting last night, didn't appoint two members to meet with the Pottstown and area representatives for future talks but "we are interested in listening to discussions about a jointure," board secretary Harry Overholtzer said after the meeting.

John B. Ferdinand, acting principal of the school, reported to the board on the recent meeting in Pottstown in which consolidation was discussed.

"I'm sure two men will be appointed in time for the next meeting," Overholtzer said.

THE BOARD learned that it would cost more than $1000 to build a driveway around the school for the school bus and decided to advertise for bids for the project.

The secretary was authorized to purchase 24 new school bus "Stop signs" to be erected on the routes.

Many of the present signs have been broken and are no longer serviceable.

Ferdinand also reported that the school district now has 280 pupils, 95 of whom attend Junior or Senior High school in Pottstown.

The board voted not to close on Oct. 21 when Pottstown holds its annual Business Education day.

It also voted to give the PTA permission to hold a square dance on Nov. 25 and a festival next Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Orlando attended the meeting and asked the board to change the bus route around the Ringing Hills area.

The board said the proposal would be studied and acted upon. All board members were present.

This Meteor Appears With Four Wheels

Anybody see a car burning in Limerick township last night?

A Mercury reporter spent an hour trying to find one.

Seems he was getting dozens of "phone calls about the meteor or fire ball that flashed through the sky last night when a woman called from Limerick and said she had just seen a fire."

"Yes, we've heard about it. It's a meteor," the rushed reporter answered quickly.

There was a long pause, then the woman said, curiously: "Well if it is it's got four wheels on it and a man is standing next to the engine pumping water on it."

And she hung up.

Vincent School Opens - Partly; Mother Is Lonely

The new Vincent consolidated school opened yesterday, but only part of the district's 375 pupils could get in.

Principal George W. Ferguson said that one of the building's wings had to remain closed for construction work.

The pupils of the Eighth grade were housed in Mount Pleasant school and pupils of the Seventh grade answered the first-day bell in the Locust Grove building.

Ferguson said he hoped to have all pupils in the new school in about one week.

MEANWHILE, for a Spring City woman, the first day of school was a peaceful—and probably lonely—one.

In 1947, The Mercury printed a picture on its first page of Mrs. James Robinson, Spring City RD 1, who had seven children of preschool age. Besides the seven, she had four children in school.

But yesterday, Mrs. Robinson sent the last of those seven young-

The local unit of senior Scouts will work magic in booth 1103 at the fair on Oct. 9 and 10.

Experimenting with chemicals can be dangerous, but the boys from Stowe aren't expected to have any trouble.

Their advisor is Robert S. Hartman, a professional chemist. There won't be any burned fingers or singed eyebrows if he can help it.

EVEN WALLS HAVE EARS, REPORT SHOWS

Salesman Offers Bonus, Deal Winds Up In Inquiry

HOMEOWNER REFUSES TO PAY FOR INSULATION

They say that walls—like humans—have ears.

But unlike the ears of humans, the wall variety can hear stories even after they've been stuffed with cotton.

And those stories get around.

Take the case of the homes at Pottsgrove Manor, for instance. Many of their walls have been so stuffed with cotton this Summer that you wouldn't think they'd hear a howitzer being fired in the living room.

But right now they're telling of a story that's so interesting that even the district attorney's office is fascinated.

It seems that the past April a distinguished looking salesman knocked on one door, was let in, and sold the occupant on the idea of having his home insulated with fibre glass.

As a bonus, the salesman said that if 20 homeowners in the section would agree to the project he'd hold a special drawing.

The holder of the winning ticket among the 20 would have his home insulated for free.

And at from $200 to $250 a crack, a free insulation job is not to be sneezed at.

And homeowners in the Pottsgrove Manor section went for the deal.

IN A MATTER of a few weeks, the salesman had 23 clients lined up and signed up.

But he then suggested that since he had already signed up 23 in such a short time, he might just as well wait until he had inked 40 and hold TWO drawings.

Through the Summer months, most of the homes were insulated. Some paid cash, others paid through their banks.

But at least one man didn't pay. He took the job on what's called a "90-day cash" proposition.

His house was insulated like the rest. But when, a month ago, the man came to collect the money, this citizen said:

"What about the drawings?" It seems that there was some question about the drawings now.

The citizen, who refused to pay, questioned the legality of the drawings. The man claimed he had

One 'Too Drunk to Drive'

Tipsy Charge Erased; Lack of Physician Cited

The lack of a police physician again blocked law enforcement in the borough yesterday.

A Pottstown officer could not find a doctor in town to examine a driver for sobriety.

Motor Patrolman Thomas Corum last night complained at a hearing before Second Ward Justice of the Peace Raymond C. Kelly, "I couldn't get a doctor to make the examination."

Arraigned at the hearing were two Berks county motorists who admitted they had "a few drinks."

Daniel Castellucci, 42, Temple and Victor Jones, 32, Reading, paid fines and costs of $32 to the Second ward justice.

Pottstown hasn't had a police physician since the resignation of Dr. Harry K. Marcy Jr., approximately five years ago.

CORUM explained, "I don't know whether a physician would have found this man drunk. But there wasn't a doctor available."

Lack of a police physician has been a consistent sore spot with the borough officers.

A number of men on the force have failed to press drunken driving charges because of the "hit-and-miss" system of calling a half-dozen physicians after an accident.

3 Business Places Struck by Burglars

Burglaries of three business places—in Pottstown, Stowe and Douglassville, and all on Route 422 (High street)—were reported yesterday.

Victimized were the Punch and Judy shop, 343 High street, where $24 was taken; Morris Berman's White Truck sales, High street near Old Reading pike in Stowe, where a portable radio and several dollars in change was taken, and Del's luncheonette, Douglassville, where 61 pennies were taken.

At the Punch and Judy shop, Mrs. Betty Friend, the owner, discovered the burglary when she opened the shop at 9 a. m.

The $24 was taken from the cash register.

Desk drawers were opened, but (Continued on Page Twelve)

YMCA Workers Report Progress In Member Drive

With peaked engineer's hats tilted at determined angles and red kerchiefs flying, membership drive workers wheeled into the YMCA last night to make their second progress report.

The workers, wearing the uniform of the year's campaign, then reported 199 new members gained since the last session. This makes a total of 382 new members thus far.

James F. Baird, general secretary, said that last night's $5200 now boosts the figure for this year to $11,029.

Baird explained that the drive workers have been divided into six teams with "engineers" heading each unit. A large map has been set up with six different railroad "lines" heading for San Francisco—which represents 200 members gained.

Leading the transcontinental race last night was the group headed by co-engineers Harold Glenney and Harry Lord. The miniature train representing their unit was pushed all the way to Cheyenne.

Refreshing Weather Is Predicted Today

September in Pottstown has been like April in Paris or January in Miami.

This crisp, clear month of many colors yesterday gained a little more prestige.

The sun was warm like the sun of Spring. The soil was dry, unlike the wet, unhealthy soil of April and May.

At mid-day a yellow haze hung over the hills and settled in the valleys. At sunset the sky was clear and cool-looking like a placid mountain lake. In the west the sun disappeared behind a great curtain of orange.

The good, refreshing weather of September will continue today, the weatherman said. It will be fair and warmer.

But the month may bow out on an unpromising note. It will grow cloudy tomorrow and there is a chance of scattered showers.

The Mellon family donated $4,000,000 to the city for the project. The garage will house 890 cars below the street level park. It will be between the Alcoa and Mellon-US Steel skyscrapers in the Golden triangle.

Paralyzed Vet Dies As Neighbors Help Construct New Home

SOUTH RIVER, N. J., Sept. 28 (AP)—Ten years of one heartache after another have ended for a paralyzed World War II bomber-dier from Scranton, Pa.

Michael Sloan, 32, died Saturday as veteran and citizen groups were constructing a specially designed home for him, his wife, Rita, and their five children.

Sloan guided a bomber to a landing during the war after the pilot and co-pilot were shot on a bombing raid over Germany.

After months in service hospitals for treatment of burns and other injuries he moved his family here from Scranton. Then he became paralyzed.

South River residents and veterans groups began a drive to help him. They located a house and paid the rent. The past March the house burned to the ground and Sloan lost his possessions. After another house was found, his youngest son, Andrew, contracted meningitis. The boy recovered eventually.

A new campaign was started this Summer to construct a home for the Sloans behind the local Veterans of Foreign Wars post. Then, the past week, Michael's brother, William, who had come to help the family, was killed in an automobile accident in nearby Raritan township.

Michael died enroute to a hospital in the South River Rescue Squad ambulance.

Pilot Killed as Jet Explodes in Flight

PANAMA CITY, Fla., Sept. 28

—A late type F86d Sabre jet fighter plane exploded in flight over Panama City today and showered wreckage over a housing project and junior high school grounds.

The pilot, whose name was withheld, was killed in the crash. No injuries were reported from the falling debris.

The explosion, which took place at 1,000 feet up, jarred buildings throughout the city. Smoke was seen trailing from the plane shortly before the explosion.

Pupils at the Jinks Junior High school were playing on school grounds during recess when the explosion took place. Principal Merritt Brown hurriedly summoned them inside the building as parts of the shattered plane showered down. The plane's engine plunged into a marshy area about 1/2 mile from the heart of the downtown area. The plane was based at Tyndall Air Force base near here.

They're all talking "best deal in town" BUT WHO'S GOT IT?

Are you really sure that the car dealer who gives you "the best deal in town" really gives you the best BUY in town?

As you well know, the best BUYS are based on value.

Because value lasts longer than any other quality—and, in automobiles, that means longer motoring pleasure, greater safety, lower upkeep, and a better trade-in allowance later on.

"The Buy of the Year!"

The new Packard CLIPPER has made news all year long as "the buy of the year." Way back last winter, the "insiders"—men of recognized automotive experience and instinct—tagged the CLIPPER as the car of the year in the medium-price field. A real, old-time PACKARD value.

You know very well that you never bought an automobile right off the printed page. You bought it ONLY after a demonstration when features either come to life or amount to nothing.

So we urge you: before you take that "best deal in town" . . . take a demonstration in the new Packard CLIPPER and value-check the features with which we challenge all other cars!

Did you know that you can own a new Packard CLIPPER for as little as

Guard Your Belongings

Petty thievery has wrapped its greedy tentacles about the Pottstown area, and this morning's Mercury reports at least four instances of break-ins and theft.

Thievery comes in cycles. When times are particularly tough, it is most rampant. On the other hand there are always those who are out to grab a fast buck by hook or crook.

The housewife will do well to see that all doors and windows of her residence are securely bolted before she leaves on a shopping spree. Office tenants and merchants should be sure to lock their places of business tightly before going home at night.

And be sure to lock the ignition and doors of your automobile when leaving it unattended on the streets even momentarily.

Such ounces of precaution on the part of the citizenry will do much toward discouraging petty thievery.

Time for Reflection

Pottstown's annual United Fund drive to raise $182,000 for 27 participating agencies is under way.

There hasn't been much fanfare as yet. In fact the only visible activity so far was a pre-campaign of 41 workers Friday night. They comprised the special gifts advance committee and Fund officials. As has been customary, they will make the initial solicitations of the campaign with the rank and file canvassers doing their chores later.

With this Fund harbingers already at work, the main drive can't be too far behind, only a matter of several weeks. So it is high time for the citizenry to dwell briefly on the good fortunes that have abided the past year, reflect on present blessings and give a little thought to those less fortunate.

The opening of the United Fund usually is the signal for one of Pottstown's favorite pastimes, kicking the organizations around. The stimulus comes from prejudices against one or two of the agencies and their operations.

No one can be expected to blow the trumpet of praise for all 27 agencies. There are always those agencies which, for one reason or another, do not appeal to a man's fancy. That is understandable. But it is definitely not understandable why this whim should warp the man's opinion for the entire United Fund setup. In that there is danger and tragedy.

Let those who feel ill disposed toward one agency gloss over their disposition. Let them glory in the agencies which do appeal to their fancy. It is eminently unfair to judge all agencies by the standards of one agency which appeals the least of all.

During the Summer, four panels of 100 volunteers probed the souls and inner workings of the United Fund participating agencies. Activities and budget requests were reviewed and carried with a fine-tooth comb. In several instances it was revealed that there was room for improvement, and budgets were adjusted accordingly.

The result was that the greatest care and foresight ever put into a community fundraising endeavor in Pottstown has preceded the present drive.

Thus prospective givers can be fully assured that the United Fund drive this year represents tops in discipline and merits full understanding and consideration.

If you can't ignore a phase of the Fund you don't like, balance it with the wealth of good you are sure comes from the Fund. And gauge your support of the drive accordingly.

Boom in Children

A new study by the Metropolitan Life Insurance company indicates that the persistent and rapid rise in our school-age population will continue throughout this decade.

By 1960, according to these estimates, the number of children 5 to 17 years of age will have increased 32 percent over the 1952 figure.

It has become commonplace to note that this rise in child population is bound to bring a corresponding increase in educational problems. Commonplace or not, the subject is so important to the future of the United States that it ought to be underscored again.

And the old equation, painful as it is, still holds true: more children means more school facilities and teachers—and more tax dollars.

Dear Sir 'n' Brother:
Wal, I see whar Pottstown Kiwanians sold a half-ton of peanuts over the week-end. There must be a lot of Republicans in Pottstown if they sold that much elephant food. After all peanuts ain't hay.

'N' I see at the Sana-toga Grange past masters ate dinner with pink roses in their laps. That's funny. I eat dinner with a knife and fork in my hands.

Over in Summerville they're passin' a law that don't allow dumptin'. Wal, here we've had a law like that for years but nobody pays no never mind to it. In fact I think the law got dumpted somewhere. Tai'n no use havin' laws if cops don't enforce 'em.

Questions Strike Motives; Cafeteria Needed

Sympathizes With Writer

To the Editor: To Bewildered Employee ("Strike No Help," Readers Say, Sept. 22): You're wondering "if this is a free country, why doesn't the union give its members a chance to say if they want to take the raise offered or if they want to continue the strike."

You and other members who had no voice in the decision can help keep this a free country. Let's face it! Who pays the high wages you say the union leader gets every payday?

You ask them for help to make your house payment. It's sad when they say: "Go get another job." Sadder still if you don't keep up your dues.

Why do they cause strikes? Mister, I've got news for you! It's not to get you a few cents raise—it goes much deeper. Think it over!

Tells School Woes

To the Editor: Why does Boyertown High school have a cafeteria? The children have to carry their lunch anyway. The line is about a mile long and with only one half hour period, it isn't enough time. It should be used for class rooms if the school is so overcrowded.

And why on these cold mornings do some gym classes have to go out on the field? That's bad enough but then a coin is tossed to see which group takes their undershirts off so they can tell them apart when playing football. I'd like to see a teacher take his off.

One class at a time is plenty and if that can't be done I say don't have any.

WASHINGTON

Tax Vs. Defense Cuts Presents Grim Choice

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28—The grim choice of promised and anticipated tax cuts or a dangerous reduction in military strength at home and overseas has been reached for the American people and Congress as a result of Treasury-Pentagon studies of these related problems. A third choice appears to be the imposition of the unpopular sales tax at the manufacturers' level.

Secretary Humphrey's recent speech only complicates the question. He favors a ten percent personal cut and abandonment of the excess-profits tax but he must make up for this $5.5 billion loss of revenue somehow, which would merely mean shifting the burden from one pocket to another, or he must skimp on armaments for ourselves or our Allies.

With President Eisenhower leading the chorus in "Operation Candor," top Administration spokesmen now stress the need of sacrifices rather than the prospect of fatter pocketbooks and heavier profits.

Fortunately, none other than former President Harry Truman and Adlai E. Stevenson may have taken Eisenhower off the political hook with respect to his campaign pledges on cutting taxes and balancing the budget. At the Democrats' Chicago rally, both jibed and jabbed at the Administration's seeming preference for the easier way—that is, tax cuts as against a National defense buildup.

WISERACKS MAY BOOMERANG

Like so many political wisecracks, Stevenson's may return to haunt him. He may wish he had not ridiculed the Eisenhower-Dulles foreign policy as one which says that "If you guys make another aggressive move, we'll cut our airplane appropriations by another billion dollars!"

It is significant that Washington officials did not speak so frankly or so candidly on this embarrassing issue until after they had been ribbed on it by the titular twins who head the opposition.

Only one slight and remote possibility can conceivably spare Eisenhower and Humphrey from making what will be an ugly choice between now and the reconvening of Congress next January.

That would be a satisfactory settlement with Red Russia and China of all the worldwide conflicts responsible for the present costly rearmament race. Nobody looks for such a pleasant but impossible prospect.

SIMPLE BUT SERIOUS: There is nothing complicated or hard to understand about the Government's financial dilemma, as Humphrey has discussed it with his banker friends. Every housewife has suffered from this problem of too many bills and not enough money to pay them on time.

It is expected that Federal revenue for the 1955 fiscal year will amount to about $60 billion. That is the money which Uncle Sam will have in the till, if Congress insists on tax cuts totalling $9 billion in personal, excise, corporation and excess profits levies.

It should be noted here that the Truman Administration fixed the dates when these post-Korean charges should expire. It was the previous Administration which actually pledged their repeal as of early 1954. The commitment was based on the erroneous belief that the "Korean police action" would last only a few months.

Despite every actual or fancied economy, Humphrey cannot yet see how he can meet the Government's obligations with only a $60-billion income.

Backs School

To the Editor: In reply to the article "Boyertown High Crowded," Readers Say, Sept. 21—

I'm really sorry there's a person in BHS who has a such a warped idea of our school.

This is my second year at Boyertown High. I can tell you it isn't like "U.R." said.

Certainly the school is overcrowded. But we must keep in mind that in a year or two we will have a new school.

Our teachers worked all Summer to provide us with a good school system. I think they succeeded!

Of course there were terrific jams in the halls the first few days. But now traffic runs fairly smoothly and things are just fine.

I think a half hour is plenty of time to get lunch and eat in the cafeteria. I do it and so do my friends.

A sensible person can budget his time so that he has time to get from one classroom to another.

There are some teachers who will lock the door if you aren't on time, but

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

ROBERTA G. is a Junior in High school.

"Dr. Crane, you advise us to be good conversationalists," she said.

"But I don't know how. After a few minutes I run out of things to talk about."

"Then I become embarrassed and my boy friend does, too. So how can a girl always be sure of something to say?"

THAT'S A PROBLEM not only of teen-agers, but of all older folks, too.

A simple solution is to analyze your companion quickly for some virtue, and then pay a compliment thereon.

"That's certainly a cute looking hat you're wearing, Roberta," her boy friend can say, when he has run out of speech ammunition.

But Roberta should not stop with the usual, "Thank you."

For that doesn't throw a cue to her escort for another comment. Instead, she should thank him and then fade out with a question.

"Thank you," she can reply, "I'm glad you like it, but I think our tastes run along similar lines, for I've admired that new tie of yours. Where did you get it?"

Then that final query makes it easy for him to re-enter the dialogue. And soon conversation rolls along merrily without apparent effort.

But if it ever slackens again, fall back on another compliment. For compliments make ideal conversation-starters.

BUT IT IS also very helpful to have a slogan like "DEAR HOME PALS" to fall back upon.

I developed that one for my students at Northwestern university who likewise complained of being tongue-tied on dates.

Each letter stands for a different field of conversation. For example, the "D" represents Drama.

"Do you like movies better than the legitimate stage shows?" you can ask during one of those embarrassing pauses in your conversation. And this prod may get the machinery of conversation into gear again.

Or suppose you pick "R" which stands for "Relatives." Simply smile sweetly and ask: "Are your brothers (or sisters) as attractive as you are?"

Or ask him if his grandparents are still living, etc. This "R" not only breaks the pause, but also helps you get information about his family.

that's because some children are late without cause.

Sharing gym lockers has been a practice that has been successful for years. Most of the present difficulties will be ironed out in time to come.

What do you say? Let's back the school!

Boyertown SHAUNE KELLY

Edit Note: These contributions from Boyertown area readers will conclude the letters The Mercury is publishing on the subject of the Boyertown High school. The editor feels that both sides have been thoroughly discussed.

Can't Fool Him

To the Editor: Regarding crowded Boyertown High school. They can't pull the wool over my eyes!

I'm not a sardine yet, but if things keep up it will be soon.

I'm tired of being shoved, pushed and trampled five days a week.

Saturday and Sunday, thank God, I have those wide open spaces!

Lo and behold, I decided to join the Rod and Gun club. Did you see those two big fat boys give me a shove and cheat in the cafeteria the other day?

I only hope if fire ever breaks out that half the pupils are absent so the other half can get out.

They talked about building a new school—why my hair has turned to silver!

Boyertown LITTLE PUPIL

"AH, SPINACH!"

Hollywood

By EDITH GWYNN

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 28—Many times Betty Hutton has raved to us about the song arrangements one Joe Lilley has done for her. So it's with utterly no surprise we learn Lilley is to be musical director of "White Christmas." This Crosby, Dana, Kaye, Rosie Clooney, Vera-Ellen opus, already underway, will have 12 new Irving Berlin tunes aside from famed oldies. Meaning 21 musical spots in the picture! . . . Lois Andrews is going East to become a publicity agent with a top organization. And we forgot to mention George Jessel does the narration for "Yesterday and Today" the upcoming movie that features countless stars of long ago. . . . Terrific turnout of celebs for the opening of "John Brown's Body" here. But it's to be hoped the "show" rates more raves on its tour than Ty Power, Anne Baxter and Raymond Massey draw in the local press!

TEMPUS FUGITS: Brian Aherne's son, Brian Jr., has passed his physical, goes into the Army pronto. . . . Betty Abbott, Rock Hudson's heart, got herself the job of script girl on "Magnificent Obsession." So the two will no doubt consider the picture's location trek to beautiful Lake Arrowhead, more vacation than work. . . . Jill Esmond, once wed to Sir Laurence Olivier, is the latest addition to the cast of "Night People." This is the Greg Peck, Rita Gam, Broderick Crawford yarn still shooting in Munich, Germany. . . . Treasure Trove... Sax and Dashes...

 KEYS, 19,500 OF THEM—When you opened your copy of yesterday's Mercury and found a big card with a small metal key on it, you were joining 19,499 other people in a form of promotion that was being tried for the first time anywhere. Levitz Furniture company wanted to get "treasure hunt" keys into the hands of as many people as possible. Finally, Mercury executives hit on the idea of using the Mercury's blanket-like coverage of the area. "Darn near perfect distribution," was what Ralph Levitz, partner in the firm, termed the arrangement. Key-cards were printed by The Mercury and, with the keys, inserted in every one of the copies delivered by carriers. Only mail and newsstand copies were excepted. Levitz estimated, on the basis of what has happened when treasure keys were distributed in much less thorough ways, that nearly 3000 Mercury reader would come to the store to try and unlock the treasure chest. They have 1000 prizes ready for people whose keys fit the lock. There is, of course, no obligation to buy anything, Levitz added.

FAR-FLUNG SOLDIER—Pvt. Leonard W. Albitz recently arrived in Leghorn, Italy. He will be assigned with the US Forces in Austria (USFA). USFA is engaged in a co-operative four-power occupation of the country with Britain, France and Russia. Pvt. Albitz is a 1948 graduate of Pottstown High school and entered the Army the past February. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Albitz, Pottstown RD 4. His wife, Eleanor Jane, lives in Sassafrasville.

 YOUNGEST HAM—The Pottstown area now boasts the youngest licensed amateur radio operator in the Third district with the announcement by the Federal Communications bureau in Washington that Alfred Miles Jr., has been granted a license. The 16-year-old Pottstown High school Senior is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred B. Miles, Keim street, Pottstown RD 4. Miles has been assigned the call letters W3WWD. He'll operate the station from his home, using a set he built himself. This Winter he figures on constructing a bigger set. Besides his radio activities, Alfred plays the tenor saxophone and is a star Scout in Troop 8. He plans to study electronics after graduation from High school.

SPECIALIZING—Pvt. Joseph D. Koron, son of Mrs. Mary Koron, 330 Cherry street, now is a military specialist. He completed the boiler repair course given at his base, Ft. Eustis, Va., which entitles him to military occupational specialty number 1030. The local soldier is a former Doehler-Jarvis division employee and attended Pottstown High school. He's been at the Virginia base since April. Took basic training there, too.

 GI BROTHERS HOME—The two GI sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Mace, 611 Chestnut street, both came home for ten-day furloughs this week. George, recently promoted to PFC, will return to his anti-aircraft unit in Maryland. He has been in the service the past ten months. Pvt. Donald Mace will return to Camp Atterbury, Ind., after his furlough. Among his duties there is sign painting for the company, including a new regimental crest on the orderly room door. Before entering the service five months ago, he was employed by the Pottstown Machine company.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

EPILEPTIC SEIZURES usually begin early in life, in childhood or young adulthood, but they can occur for the first time in later years.

Late appearance of the seizures especially calls for a thorough physical examination, for these late seizures are often caused by conditions other than epilepsy.

When convulsions appear past the age of 35, it is believed that most of the cases are due to diseases in which progressive damage to the brain occurs.

In many instances, the underlying cause may be a blood clot of one of the blood vessels of the brain, or a brain tumor, or, for some unknown reason, self-destruction of parts of the brain.

However, it has been found that high blood pressure, head injuries, and severe alcoholism may contribute to the occurrence of these attacks.

In many instances, an epileptic knows when an attack is coming by such signs as headache, tremor, pressure behind the head, noise in the ear, or some other such warning.

As the attack begins, he will usually cry or scream out, and then faint and lose consciousness. His body becomes rigid, with his arms and legs stretched out; his jaw closes tightly and he may even bite his tongue in clogging his jaw.

Then sudden muscular twitching of all the muscles of the body develops, with a vigorous jerking of the body which lasts from two to five minutes. As the attack subsides, the patient may lose control of his bowels or bladder.

After a convulsion, the patient sleeps for a few hours, awakens with little memory of the attack, and is in a somewhat dazed condition for hours or perhaps days.

There are types of epilepsy in which the person has no convulsion or falling, but just ceases activity and becomes pale, with a twitching of the eyelids, lips or tongue for a few seconds.

Sometimes an epileptic may exhibit his brain irritation by a purposeless action, such as running or talking, without any relation to the situation or to what he was doing before.

It was found that over 50 percent of people over 35 years of age with epileptic seizures have normal findings in their brain, other than the area of irritation causing the epilepsy, and that they can lead a normal adult life with their epilepsy under the control of the many drugs available for this purpose.

But unto you that fear My name shall the sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings.—Malachi
4:2.

Guard Your Belongings

Petty thievery has wrapped its greedy tentacles about the Pottstown area, and this morning's Mercury reports at least four instances of break-ins and theft.

Thievery comes in cycles. When times are particularly tough, it is most rampant. On the other hand there are always those who are out to grab a fast buck by hook or crook.
The housewife will do well to see that all doors and windows of her residence are securely bolted before she leaves on a shopping spree. Office tenants and merchants should be sure to lock their places of business tightly before going home at night.

And be sure to lock the ignition and doors of your automobile when leaving it unattended on the streets even momentarily.

Such ounces of precaution on the part of the citizenry will do much toward discouraging petty thievery.

Time for Reflection

Pottstown's annual United Fund drive to raise $182,000 for 27 participating agencies is under way.

There hasn't been much fanfare as yet.
In fact the only visible activity so far was a pre-campaign of 41 workers Friday night.
They comprised the special gifts advance committee and Fund officials. As has been customary, they will make the initial solicitations of the campaign with the rank and file canvassers doing their chores later.

With this Fund harbinger already at work, the main drive can't be too far behind, only a matter of several weeks. So it is high time for the citizenry to dwell briefly on the good fortunes that have abided the past year, reflect on present blessings and give a little thought to those less fortunate.

The opening of the United Fund usually is the signal for one of Pottstown's favorite pastimes, kicking the organizations around.
The stimulus comes from prejudices against one or two of the agencies and their operations.

No one can be expected to blow the trumpet of praise for all 27 agencies.
There are always those agencies which,
for one reason or another, do not appeal to a man's fancy. That is understandable. But it is definitely not understandable why this whim should warp the man's opinion for the entire United Fund setup. In that there is danger and tragedy.

Let those who feel ill disposed toward one agency gloss over their disposition. Let them glory in the agencies which do appeal to their fancy. It is eminently unfair to judge all agencies by the standards of one agency which appeals the least of all.

During the Summer, four panels of 100 volunteers probed the souls and inner workings of the United Fund participating agencies. Activities and budget requests were reviewed and carried with a fine-tooth comb.
In several instances it was revealed that there was room for improvement, and budgets were adjusted accordingly.

The result was that the greatest care and forethought ever put into a community fundraising endeavor in Pottstown has preceded the present drive.

Thus prospective givers can be fully assured that the United Fund drive this year represents tops in discipline and merits full understanding and consideration.

If you can't ignore a phase of the Fund you don't like, balance it with the wealth of good you are sure comes from the Fund.
And gauge your support of the drive accordingly.

Boom in Children

A new study by the Metropolitan Life Insurance company indicates that the persistent and rapid rise in our school-age population will continue throughout this decade.
By 1960, according to these estimates, the number of children 5 to 17 years of age will have increased 32 percent over the 1952 figure.

It has become commonplace to note that this rise in child population is bound to bring a corresponding increase in educational problems. Commonplace or not, the subject is so important to the future of the United States that it ought to be underscored again.

And the old equation, painful as it is, still holds true: more children means more school facilities and teachers—and more tax dollars.

Tells School Woes

To the Editor: Why does Boyertown High school have a cafeteria? The children have to carry their lunch anyway.
The line is about a mile long and with only one half hour period, it isn't enough time. It should be used for class rooms if the school is so overcrowded.

And why on these cold mornings do some gym classes have to go out on the field? That's bad enough but then a coin is tossed to see which group takes their undershirts off so they can tell them apart when playing football. I'd like to see a teacher take his off.

One class at a time is plenty and if that can't be done I say don't have any.

WASHINGTON

Tax Vs. Defense Cuts
Presents Grim Choice

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28—The grim choice of promised and anticipated tax cuts or a dangerous reduction in military strength at home and overseas has been readied for the American people and Congress as a result of Treasury-Pentagon studies of these related problems. A third choice appears to be the imposition of the unpopular sales tax at the manufacturers' level.

Secretary Humphrey's recent speech only complicates the question. He favors a ten percent personal cut and abandonment of the excess-profits tax but he must make up for this $5.5 billion loss of revenue somehow, which would merely mean shifting the burden from one pocket to another, or he must skimp on armaments for ourselves or our Allies.

With President Eisenhower leading the chorus in "Operation Candor," top Administration spokesmen now stress the need of sacrifices rather than the prospect of fatter pocketbooks and heavier profits.

Fortunately, none other than former President Harry Truman and Adlai E.
Stevenson may have taken Eisenhower off the political hook with respect to his campaign pledges on cutting taxes and balancing the budget. At the Democrats' Chicago rally, both jibed and jabbed at the Administration's seeming preference for the easier way—that is, tax cuts as against a National defense build-up.

WISERACKS MAY BOOMERANG

Like so many political wisecracks,
Stevenson's may return to haunt him.
He may wish he had not ridiculed the Eisenhower-Dulles foreign policy as one which says that "If you guys make another aggressive move, we'll cut our airplane appropriations by another billion dollars!"

It is significant that Washington officials did not speak so frankly or so candidly on this embarrassing issue until after they had been ribbed on it by the titular twins who head the opposition.

Only one slight and remote possibility can conceivably spare Eisenhower and Humphrey from making what will be an ugly choice between now and the reconvening of Congress next January.

That would be a satisfactory settlement with Red Russia and China of all the worldwide conflicts responsible for the present costly rearmament race.
Nobody looks for such a pleasant but impossible prospect.

SIMPLE BUT SERIOUS: There is nothing complicated or hard to understand about the Government's financial dilemma, as Humphrey has discussed it with his banker friends. Every housewife has suffered from this problem of too many bills and not enough money to pay them on time.

It is expected that Federal revenue for the 1955 fiscal year will amount to about $60 billion. That is the money which Uncle Sam will have in the till, if Congress insists on tax cuts totalling $9 billion in personal, excise, corporation and excess profits levies.

It should be noted here that the Truman Administration fixed the dates when these post-Korean charges should expire. It was the previous Administration which actually pledged their repeal as of early 1954. The commitment was based on the erroneous belief that the "Korean police action" would last only a few months.

Despite every actual or fancied economy, Humphrey cannot yet see how he can meet the Government's obligations with only a $60-billion income.

Backs School

To the Editor: In reply to the article ("Boyetown High Crowded," Readers Say, Sept. 21)—

I'm really sorry there's a person in BHS who has a such a warped idea of our school.

This is my second year at Boyertown High. I can tell you it isn't like "U.R." said.

Certainly the school is overcrowded.
But we must keep in mind that in a year or two we will have a new school.

Our teachers worked all Summer to provide us with a good school system.
I think they succeeded!

Of course there were terrific jams in the halls the first few days. But now traffic runs fairly smoothly and things are just fine.

I think a half hour is plenty of time to get lunch and eat in the cafeteria. I do it and so do my friends.

A sensible person can budget his time so that he has time to get from one classroom to another.

There are some teachers who will lock the door if you aren't on time, but that's because some children are late without cause.

Sharing gym lockers has been a practice that has been successful for years.
Most of the present difficulties will be ironed out in time to come.

What do you say? Let's back the school!

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

ROBERTA G. is a Junior in High school.

"Dr. Crane, you advise us to be good conversationalists," she said.

"But I don't know how. After a few minutes I run out of things to talk about.

"Then I become embarrassed and my boy friend does, too. So how can a girl always be sure of something to say?"

THAT'S A PROBLEM not only of teen-agers, but of all older folks, too.

A simple solution is to analyze your companion quickly for some virtue and then pay a compliment thereon.

"That's certainly a cute looking hat you're wearing, Roberta," her boy friend can say, when he has run out of speech ammunition.

But Roberta should not stop with the usual, "Thank you."

For that doesn't throw a cue to her escort for another comment. Instead, she should thank him and then fade out with a question.

"Thank you," she can reply, "I'm glad you like it, but I think our tastes run along similar lines, for I've admired that new tie of yours. Where did you get it?"

Then that final query makes it easy for him to re-enter the dialogue. And soon conversation rolls along merrily without apparent effort.

But if it ever slackens again, fall back on another compliment. For compliments make ideal conversation-starters.

BUT IT IS also very helpful to have a slogan like "DEAR HOME PALS" to fall back upon.

I developed that one for my students at Northwestern university who likewise complained of being tongue-tied on dates.

Each letter stands for a different field of conversation. For example, the "D" represents Drama.

"Do you like movies better than the legitimate stage shows?" you can ask during one of those embarrassing pauses in your conversation. And this prod may get the machinery of conversation into gear again.

Or suppose you pick "R" which stands for "Relatives." Simply smile sweetly and ask: "Are your brothers (or sisters) as attractive as you are?"

Or ask him if his grandparents are still living, etc. This "R" not only breaks the pause, but also helps you get information about his family.

YOUR HEALTH
By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.
EPILEPTIC SEIZURES usually begin early in life, in childhood or adulthood, but they can occur at any time in later years.

Late appearance of the seizures usually calls for a thorough physical examination, for these late seizures often caused by conditions other than epilepsy.

When convulsions appear past the age of 35, it is believed that most of them are due to diseases in which progressive damage to the brain occurs.

In many instances, the underlying cause may be a blood clot of one of blood vessels of the brain, or a brain tumor, or, for some unknown reason, the destruction of parts of the brain.

However, it has been found that blood pressure, head injuries, and several alcoholism may contribute to the occurrence of these attacks.

In many instances, an epileptic kn when an attack is coming by such as headache, tremor, pressure behind the head, noise in the ear, or some such warning.

As the attack begins, he will usually cry or scream out, and then faint lose consciousness. His body becomes rigid, with his arms and legs streched out; his jaw closes tightly and he even bite his tongue in clenching his jaws.

Then sudden muscular twitching all the muscles of the body develop with a vigorous jerking of the body lasts from two to five minutes. As attack subsides, the patient may control of his bowels or bladder.

After a convulsion, the patient for a few hours, awakens with no memory of the attack, and is in a what dazed condition for hours or days.

There are types of epilepsy in which the person has no convulsion or fall but just ceases activity and becomes pale, with a twitching of the eyelids, or tongue for a few seconds.

US Naval Planes Attack Battleship By Mistake in NATO Maneuvers

ABOARD HMS VANGUARD, ship. But still the planes came in. Sept. 28 (AP) — American Naval planes "attacked" the British battleship Vanguard today in the first big blunder of NATO's North Atlantic maneuvers off Iceland.

The planes, from US carriers, and the Vanguard were all seeking the same "enemy" — the British cruiser Swiftsure in "Exercise Mariner."

But the planes apparently took the battleship for the cruiser and gave the Vanguard a terrific imaginary pasting.

West Chester Pays Homage to Miss Ay

WEST CHESTER, Sept. 28 (AP) — Miss America of 1954 — blond Evelyn Margaret Ay — was welcomed back today to the town where she won the right to compete in the Atlantic City beauty contest.

Students at the State teachers college, borough and Chamber of Commerce officials and residents spent most of the day honoring the green-eyed beauty who was crowned Miss Pennsylvania here the past month. Since then the town has adopted her.

Tomorrow the "welcome home" celebration switches to Ephrata, hometown of the former University of Pennsylvania coed. Nearly 25,000 persons are expected to take part in a day long festivities there.

Miss Ay made the rounds today accompanied by Marion Louis Attinger, Middleburg, runner up in the State contest. Miss Attinger is a student at the Teachers college.

Following a motorcade through town, with the college band leading the way, Miss Ay was presented with a bound album of pictures covering her rise to the Miss America title. Burgess Gibbons, J. Cornwell made the presentation on behalf of the community at a special luncheon.

US Naval Planes Attack Battleship By Mistake in NATO Maneuvers

ABOARD HMS VANGUARD, ship. But still the planes came in. Then the Vanguard opened fire with blank shells as the planes—believed to be based on the US carrier Bennington—made run after run.

A FEW MINUTES later the Vanguard spotted the Swiftsure about 11 miles away and pounded the cruiser with her 15-inch guns. The Swiftsure, with much lighter armament, was outclassed and was "sunk," presumably, although final word on her fate will not be decided until exercise umpires get their heads together.

But the planes apparently took the battleship for the cruiser and gave the Vanguard a terrific imaginary pasting.

The Vanguard frantically tried to identify herself as a friendly

The Vanguard and the American force had been seeking out the Swiftsure since yesterday. The battleship started to head north with the American cruisers Macon and Des Moines. A howling North Atlantic storm slowed down the cruisers, so the Vanguard knifed on alone.

The battleship entered the iceberg belt and flurries of snow made visibility poor. The planes, also rushing in for the kill on the Swiftsure, spotted the Vanguard and screamed to the attack. The Royal Navy officer on the bridge gave orders for the battleship's own defense. "Never mind the enemy," he ordered. "God save us from our friends."

Magistrate Gilbert, Former Pottstonian, Takes Oath as Judge

Magistrate Keller H. Gilbert, brother of a Sanatoga woman and a former Pottstonian, was sworn in yesterday afternoon as a judge of Philadelphia Municipal court. The 60-year-old magistrate was sworn in at impressive ceremonies at city hall by President Judge John Boyle.
Judge Gilbert will fill out the unexpired term of Judge Edward Kelley, who passed away recently.
Mrs. Edward Graham, Sanatoga, the judge's sister, and Ruth Callahan, Sanatoga, his niece, were on hand for the ceremonies that started at 3 p. m.
Judge Gilbert graduated from Pottstown Senior High school in 1908 and from Pottstown Business college a year later.
He then moved to Philadelphia and attended Temple university's evening law classes.
For the past 12 years he has served as a magistrate in Philadelphia.

Dinner Is Scheduled By Church Workers

Sunday school workers of First Baptist church will open the Fall work of the school with a 6:30 o'clock dinner tonight at the church.
The board of Christian education is sponsoring the dinner, and all vacation school teachers are invited, as well as Sunday school teachers and officers.
Guest speaker will be the Rev. Benjamin Brown, Philadelphia, executive director of the sales division, American Baptist Publications society.
The dinner is an annual get-together that takes place during Christian Education week, which began on Sunday with a rally day program.
Dinner will be served by the Fidelis class of the Sunday school. First Baptist school is also holding an attendance contest this Fall, with Lansdale, Coatesville, Reading and Phoenixville Baptist Sunday schools competing.

Church in Linfield Notes Harvest Home

Linfield Reformed church celebrated the largest harvest home service in its history on Sunday.
The 155 worshippers attending took part in a service that was almost entirely musical.
Ramona Deery and Dorothy Bauer sang a duet, and Raye Ash and Mrs. N. K. Savage played an instrumental duet on the organ and piano, respectively.
Mrs. C. Daub and S. C. Miller sang both in duets and solos.
Other music included selections by a men's quartet and the choir.
Fruits and vegetables placed about the altar by members were taken later to the Wyncote home.

Obituaries

WILSON R. REINERT, 70, former Pottstown resident, died Saturday in MONTGOMERY COUNTY INSTITUTION DISTRICT HOME near Royersford, where he had lived since the past May.

Mr. Reinert was born in Easton and lived most of his life in Allentown and Emmaus. For the past 12 years, he had lived in Pottstown, at 105 North Hanover street and at the Merchants hotel.

He had been a proof-reader for The Mercury.

Surviving are two daughters, Julia, wife of Robert Renninger, and Helen, wife of Harold Jones; a brother, Edwin; a sister, Bessie; two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. All survivors live in Allentown.

Services will be held tomorrow afternoon from the Reinsmith Funeral home in Emmaus. Interment will be made in Zionsville Lutheran cemetery.

Funeral services for HARRY R. YOUNG SR., who died Saturday at his home in EAST GREENVILLE, will be held at 1:30 p. m. tomorrow from the Hoffman funeral home, East Greenville. Interment will be in New Goshenhoppen Evangelical and Reformed cemetery.

Mr. Young was born in Sunnyside 82 years ago, the son of the late Michael and Matilda (Royer) Young. He was the husband of the late Lillie M. (Roeder) Young. He worked as a self-employed painter until his retirement, and was a member of the New Goshenhoppen Evangelical and Reformed church.

Surviving are five sons, Harry R. Jr., and Wallace G., both of East Greenville; Arthur, Emmaus; Ralph, Bridgeport, and Claude, at home; four daughters, Mrs. Florence Bender, Pottstown; Mildred, at home; Mrs. Mary Gass and Mrs. Mae Guldin, both of East Greenville; a sister, Mrs. Maggie Fryer, East Greenville; 14 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral services for GEORGE GREGORY, husband of the late Charlotte W. Gregory, KNOXVILLE, TENN., were held yesterday at 10 a. m. in Mt. Zion cemetery.

The Rev. George Lineker, rector of Christ Episcopal church, officiated. Arrangements were in charge of the Houck Funeral home, 112 North Washington street.

Funeral services for JOSEPH H. BAKER, husband of the late Emma H. (Bennett) Baker, 449 NORTH YORK STREET, were held yesterday afternoon from the Harley funeral home, 404 High street.

The Rev. Martin J. Brinton, pastor of the First Methodist church, officiated. Interment was in Highland Memorial Park cemetery.

Two Patrolmen Kill Man After Robbery

CINCINNATI, Sept. 28 (AP) — Two patrolmen fatally wounded a 25-year-old man from suburban Norwood today shortly after he held up the Hillsdale Loan and Building company on Cincinnati's north side.

Officers said they recovered $2267 from Marshall Burgher before he died in a hospital.

Minutes after the holdup, Patrolmen Dale Derbyshire and Charles Asimus saw Burgher less than four blocks from the holdup scene. They recognized the man and started to approach him from opposite sides.

They said they opened fire when Burgher drew a small foreign-made revolver from a zipper bag he was carrying.

BONDS SCORE ADVANCES

Local Firemen Hear Talk On Yukon Adventures

Ralph Levitz, of Pottstown, entertained 25 members of the North End Fire company last night with a talk on his trip the past year to the Yukon territory in Alaska. Levitz showed several hunting trophies in a series of colored slides with which he accompanied his talk.

The last reading of a revised set of by-laws for the company was held and the new laws were accepted. President John B. Hartenstein presided at the meeting, held in the Empire Hook and Ladder company building.

Five Join Moose Lodge

Five men were welcomed into membership in the Pottstown Loyal Order of Moose Lodge 369 at a meeting last night at the Moose home.

Gov. Harry Wells presided at the meeting attended by 15 persons.

The largest city in North and South America for many years was Polosi, Bolivia.

HOW NOT to blow yourself up when doing chemical experiments is explained to members of Stowe Explorer Post 106 by Adviser Robert Hartman, left.

He's pointing to apparatus the Explorers will use in their "chemical wonders" show at the Devon Scouting fair on Oct. 9 and 10.

The post is sponsored jointly by St. Paul's Reformed and St. Peter's Lutheran churches, both of Stowe.

Buff tail tips distinguish the Rio Grande wild turkey from other types.

To the young family man who's thinking ahead—

Here's "big protection" for modest outlay... two Farm Bureau policies tailored specifically for young men who want to build careers soundly—and protect their families securely.

Because Farm Bureau works on the principle "more insurance for more people at less cost," these plans were set up to assure you a dependable source of emergency cash—plus a wonderful feeling of family and business security... at costs young men can afford.

Examine both of these unusual plans now...

2 extra - value Life INSURANCE PLANS built just for you!

① FAMILY INCOME INSURANCE

Guarantee an income to your family whether you are here or not. Because you are young, healthy and productive, the premium is low. As the children grow up and your responsibilities grow lighter, the family coverage can taper off, and the plan be converted to a retirement income for you.

Here's How It Works! Suppose you have a wife and two children, aged 3 and 1. If your family is protected under this plan with a $10,000 20-year Family Income Policy—and if your death should occur even in the first year after the policy is issued—your family would receive:

An Emergency Fund of $2,000 (to meet doctors' bills, hospital bills, etc.)	$2,000.00
A Readjustment Income of $200 per month for 12 months	2,400.00
A Steady Income of $100.00 per month beginning the 13th month following death and continuing for 19 full years	22,800.00
A Lump Sum of $8,000 in cash (or its equivalent in a monthly income) at the end of the 20 year period	8,000.00
TOTAL PAYMENTS TO FAMILY	$35,200.00

② "MUST" PROTECTION FOR BUSINESS, PROFESSIONAL MEN

Low-cost, level-premium policy, $10,000 units. High cash values after second year. Provides business protection, retirement income, or family protection. Remarkably low net cost makes this policy ideal for—

Partnership Insurance... to buy interest of partner who dies.

Key Man Insurance... to protect business against loss of essential executive.

Estate Planning... protection against debts and taxes in settling an estate.

Cash Reserve... to protect business or professional career in case of accident or illness.

Expense Fund... to protect your family against forced liquidation of business in event of death.

Automatic Savings... with substantial dividends, regularly mounting cash values.

These realistically priced policies are backed by one of America's soundest and most progressive insurance organizations... providing sound and thrifty protection for nearly two million families. Other value-wise Farm Bureau plans may suit your special needs better. You can get full details from the Farm Bureau man in your community... today. THEFT, SHOOTING ARE AMONG COURT CASES

26 Area Residents Are Slated for Jury Duty

A cafe burglary, a shooting spree and the case of a man who stole a television set from a church in April and skipped bail in June — these are among the Pottstown area cases to be tried next week in Montgomery county courthouse, Norristown.

Twenty-six Pottstown area residents are slated for jury duty during the week.

The bail-jumper is Frank Roschetz, 52, who is accused of stealing a 14-inch TV set the past April 13 from St. John's Reformed church and walking away with it in broad daylight.

The past June 9, when his case was called in criminal court, he was missing. His bail of $2000 was forfeited. Roschetz lives in Philadelphia.

His case is scheduled to be tried Tuesday, Oct. 6, before Judge William F. Dannehower.

THREE MEN are scheduled to face trial Monday before President Judge Harold G. Knight on burglary charges arising from the theft of more than $100 from the South Hanover Street cafe.

Their case may be delayed because two of the men—Kenneth E. Opalack, 19, of 451 11th street, and Robert James Bowman, 26, Malvern, Chester county, a former borough resident—were in Berks county prison following their conviction the past week of stealing $400 from Boyertown American Legion home.

The third defendant is Charles Messantonio, Pottstown man who also faces a Federal charge of stealing checks from a postal relay station.

Messantonio, Bowman and Opalack are all charged with burglary and larceny, receiving stolen goods and conspiracy to commit burglary and larceny.

DEFENDANT in the shooting spree case is Sidney Gilliam, Second avenue, Royersford RD 1. He is accused of attempting to kill 35-year-old William Dabney, West King street, Penn Village, the past Aug. 7.

Dabney said that Gilliam ran out of a house on Grant street near Jefferson avenue, while he was standing out front, and fired five or six shots, most of them in his direction.

Gilliam faces a charge of "attempts with intent to kill" and four charges of mishandling firearms. Pottstown area jurors are:

Clyde Bauman, 382 High street; Morris Berman, Pennsburg; Roland O. Betlerly, 817 Queen street; Sara Bieler, Pennsburg; Ella B. Brey, Red Hill; Frank Brinchman, 411 Main street, East Greenville; Kenneth Buchert, Sanatoga.

Joseph H. Burdan, 6 West Second street; Kathryn I. Bush, Boulder Crest, Zieglerville; Margaret E. Clemmer, Spring Mount; Mildred Davidheiser, 1059 Queen street; Mary Hartenstine, 36 Walnut street, Viola Hausman, Pottstown RD 3.

Frank L. Hill, 520 North Charlotte street; Earl Hunsicker, Cross Keys road, Collegeville RD 2; Alvina Kerper, 925 South street; Fred K. Kleinbach, Green Lane; Sadie Miller, 137 East Seventh avenue; Trappe; Marie Moyer, 538 Main street, Trappe; Charles Mutter, Obelisk.

J. M. Peterman, 563 Walnut street, Royersford; Clarence R. Richard, Red Hill; Lulu B. Roberts, 941 High street; Jesse Schwenk, Red Hill; Edwin Smith, Collegeville RD; Madalon Wehr, Red Hill; Martha Woodin, Pennsburg.

Good Public Opinion Outlined for Flight C

The military approach to the problem of generating and maintaining favorable public opinion was discussed last night by Lawrence K. Davis, 1425 Cherry lane, at a meeting of Flight C of the 9014th Air Force Reserve training squadron.

Davis is public information officer for Valley Forge Army hospital and was the main speaker at the meeting at the Pottstown airport in Limerick. Davis served with the Air Force in India and the Far East during World War II.

Lt. Harwood W. Parry gave a lecture on wing organization. Lt. Harry D. Weller gave an orientation talk.

The meeting was the last at the airport this year—all succeeding meetings during the Winter months will be held in the Pottstown American Legion home. The next meeting is scheduled for Oct. 12.

asked if they could be of assistance.

"I asked them to pull their car in front of the car of these gentlemen so they could not pull away. I then walked to the home of Brooke Lessig (800 High street) and asked him to call the police."

"The language used by these men at the scene was a detriment to the community."

CASTELLUCCI, talking rapidly and in a voice like a musical comb, shouted, "If I was drunk and disorderly I at least came back."

"I went through the light and in order not to get fined I backed up. I did hit this man and I immediately stopped the car and pulled over to the curb."

Corum, who investigated the accident with Motor Patrolman Earl J. Rhoads, then said he could not get a physician to examine the driver for intoxication.

Jones then made his only statement of the hearing. Meekly he said, "I admit I was drunk. That's why I wasn't driving."

Kelley told Castellucci he would have to pay $18.50 fine and costs for disorderly conduct and fighting. On a drunk and disorderly charge Jones was assessed $13.50 fine and costs.

WHEN KELLEY set the fine and costs, Castellucci asked the justice for "a break. Can't you give me a couple hours to get the money?"

Kelley snapped, "I don't care about that. You've got to have all the money. You can make a phone call to get it, but if you don't have the right amount you can spend 30 days in jail."

The pair then emptied their pockets and tossed a heap of folding money in front of the justice. Kelley counted out $19 enough to free Castellucci.

Outside the hearing room Castellucci hummed a cigarette from Motor Patrolman Paul I. Galloway. Taking a deep drag and looking at Jones he said, "You know, Vic, this is going to cost us a lot of money."

"One-hundred and eighty beers. Jeez that's a lot of beer."

Greenly said it would cost more than $50 to repair damage to his station wagon. He received an estimate of $57 several hours after the accident.

Castellucci returned from Reading late last night with the $13.50 and Jones was released from the lockup.

Man Here Jailed On AWOL Charge

An 18-year-old AWOL seaman was arrested in Pottstown last night by Sgt. Harold E. Hahn of the borough police.

The man was identified as Donald Everett, US Navy, whose address while on leave was listed as Trenton, N. J. Sgt. Hahn arrested him at 11 p. m. on Beech street, between York and Johnson streets.

Everett was due back at the US Naval Receiving station at the Philadelphia Naval base the past Friday. He failed to return to his post after leaving for Trenton. He is being held in the borough lockup.

The salesman said he would take a judgment out against him. The client told him to go ahead.

QUITE a number of the "36" contacted by the client were all for his holding out until the drawing was held.

But alas! It may never be now. Because the district attorney's office somehow learned about the whole incident.

The DA dispatched a man to Pottstown. He got the facts in the case the past week.

What the results of the case will be won't be known for a while.

Probably until the snow flies. But in any case, the "ears" that first heard the story will be spending a much cozier Winter with their fibre glass ear muffs.

Boy With 'Ear' Astounds Police

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Sept. 28 (AP)—Police were astounded when a nine-year-old boy, opened the safe in the detectives' room in two out of three tries.

A bicycle theft charge against the youngster, not identified, was lodged the past Monday and he was released in custody of his mother.

Yesterday, a policeman saw the boy loitering on a street, took him to the station house.

Then he demonstrated on the official repository.

Man Asks Reversal Of Court Conviction

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 28 (AP)—The State Superior court was asked today to reverse a lower court conviction of a Sunbury man on charges of failing to obey orders of a deputy game warden.

In a brief filed at the opening of the court's Fall term, George W. Rhone said the arrest deprived him of his rights under the US and State constitutions. Rhone had been charged with refusing to permit a game warden to examine the trunk of a car he was driving. He maintained it was not his car.

"The evidence clearly shows that he (Rhone) did not in any manner attempt to stop the officers if they wished to search the automobile," Rhone said in the brief.

State Police Launch Search for Firebug

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 28 (AP)—A search was launched today for a firebug who is believed to have set four Bucks county barns on fire in three days.

Robert Graham, county fire marshal, said he believes there is "a desperate firebug on the loose."

He said the person might be the same one who caused 12 barn fires in Lehigh county the past few weeks.

Graham asked State police at Doylestown, Quakertown and Langhorne to watch for suspicious persons. Some 200 tons of hay and the season's crops were destroyed in the latest fire yesterday at the G. A. Burckick farm on the Wrightstone-Richboro road.

Man Asks Reversal Of Court Conviction

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 28 (AP)—The State Superior court was asked today to reverse a lower court conviction of a Sunbury man on charges of failing to obey orders of a deputy game warden.

In a brief filed at the opening of the court's Fall term, George W. Rhone said the arrest deprived him of his rights under the US and State constitutions. Rhone had been charged with refusing to permit a game warden to examine the trunk of a car he was driving. He maintained it was not his car.

"The evidence clearly shows that he (Rhone) did not in any manner attempt to stop the officers if they wished to search the automobile," Rhone said in the brief.

State Police Launch Search for Firebug

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 28 (AP)—A search was launched today for a firebug who is believed to have set four Bucks county barns on fire in three days.

Robert Graham, county fire marshal, said he believes there is "a desperate firebug on the loose."

THEFT, SHOOTING ARE AMONG COURT CASES

26 Area Residents Are Slated for Jury Duty

A cafe burglary, a shooting spree and the case of a man who stole a television set from a church in April and skipped bail in June — these are among the Pottstown area cases to be tried next week in Montgomery county courthouse, Norristown.

Twenty-six Pottstown area residents are slated for jury duty during the week.

The bail-jumper is Frank Roschetz, 52, who is accused of stealing a 14-inch TV set the past April 13 from St. John's Reformed church and walking away with it in broad daylight.

The past June 9, when his case was called in criminal court, he was missing. His bail of $2000 was forfeited. Roschetz lives in Philadelphia.

His case is scheduled to be tried Tuesday, Oct. 6, before Judge William F. Dannehower.

THREE MEN are scheduled to face trial Monday before President Judge Harold G. Knight on burglary charges arising from the theft of more than $100 from the South Hanover Street cafe.

Their case may be delayed because two of the men—Kenneth E. Opalack, 19, of 451 High street, and Robert James Bowman, 26, Malvern, Chester county, a former borough resident—are in Berks county prison following their conviction the past week of stealing $400 from Boyertown American Legion home.

The third defendant is Charles Messantonio, Pottstown man who also faces a Federal charge of stealing checks from a postal relay station.

Messantonio, Bowman and Opalack are all charged with burglary and larceny, receiving stolen goods and conspiracy to commit burglary and larceny.

DEFENDANT in the shooting spree case is Sidney Gilliam, Second avenue, Royersford RD 1. He is accused of attempting to kill 25-year-old William Dabney, West King street, Penn Village, the past Aug. 7.

Dabney said that Gilliam ran out of a house on Grant street near Jefferson avenue, while he was standing out front, and fired five or six shots, most of them in his direction.

Gilliam faces a charge of "attempts with intent to kill" and four charges of mishandling firearms.

Pottstown area jurors are: Clyde Bauman, 382 High street; Morris Berman, Pennsburg; Roland O. Betterly, 817 Queen street; Sara Bieler, Pennsburg; Ella B. Brey, Red Hill; Frank Brinchman, 411 Main street, East Greenville; Kenneth Buchert, Sanatoga.

Joseph H. Burdian, 6 West Second street; Kathryn I. Bush, Boulder Crest, Zieglerville; Margaret E. Clemmer, Spring Mount; Mildred Davidheiser, 1059 Queen street; Mary Hartenstein, 36 Walnut street; Viola Hausseman, Pottstown RD 3.

Frank L. Hill, 520 North Charlotte street; Earl Hunsicker, Cross Keys road, Collegeville RD 2; Alvina Kerper, 925 South street; Fred K. Kleinbach, Green Lane; Sadie Miller, 137 East Seventh avenue, Trappe; Marie Moyer, 538 Main street, Trappe; Charles Mutter, Obelisk.

J. M. Peterman, 563 Walnut street, Royersford; Clarence R. Richard, Red Hill; Lulu B. Roberts, 941 High street; Jesse Schwenk, Red Hill; Edwin Smith, Collegeville RD; Madalon Wehr, Red Hill; Martha, Woodin, Pennsburg.

Good Public Opinion Outlined for Flight C

The military approach to the problem of generating and maintaining favorable public opinion was discussed last night by Lawrence K. Davis, 1425 Cherry lane, at a meeting of Flight C of the 9014th Air Force Reserve training squadron.

Davis is public information officer for Valley Forge Army hospital and was the main speaker at the meeting at the Pottstown airport in Limerick. Davis served with the Air Force in India and the Far East during World War II.

Lt. Harwood W. Parry gave a lecture on wing organization. Lt. Harry D. Weller gave an orientation talk.

The meeting was the last at the airport this year—all succeeding meetings during the Winter months will be held in the Pottstown American Legion home. The next meeting is scheduled for Oct. 12.

asked if they could be of assistance.

"I asked them to pull their car in front of the car of these gentlemen so they could not pull away."

"I then walked to the home of Brooke Lessig (800 High street) and asked him to call the police."

"The language used by these men at the scene was a detriment to the community."

CASTELLUCCI, talking rapidly and in a voice like a musical comb, shouted, "If I was drunk and disorderly I at least came back. I went through the light and in order not to get fined I backed up. I did hit this man and I immediately stopped the car and pulled over to the curb."

Corum, who investigated the accident with Motor Patrolman Earl J. Rhoads, then said he could not get a physician to examine the driver for intoxication.

Jones then made his only statement of the hearing. Meekly he said, "I admit I was drunk. That's why I wasn't driving."

Kelley told Castellucci he would have to pay $18.50 fine and costs for disorderly conduct and fighting. On a drunk and disorderly charge Jones was assessed $13.50 fine and costs.

WHEN KELLEY set the fine and costs, Castellucci asked the justice for "a break. Can't you give me a couple hours to get the money?"

Kelley snapped, "I don't care about that. You've got to have all the money. You can make a phone call to get it, but if you don't have the right amount you can spend 30 days in jail."

The pair then emptied their pockets and tossed a heap of folding money in front of the justice. Kelley counted out $19 enough to free Castellucci.

Outside the hearing room Castellucci hummed a cigaret from Motor Patrolman Paul I. Galloway. Taking a deep drag and looking at Jones he said, "You know, Vic, this is going to cost us a lot of money."

"One hundred and eighty beers. Jeez that's a lot of beer."

Greenly said it would cost more than $50 to repair damage to his station wagon. He received an estimate of $57 several hours after the accident.

Castellucci returned from Reading late last night with the $13.50 and Jones was released from the lockup.

the next afternoon to pay his fine? Would he suspect that police wanted him? Would he figure that he was ahead, after one brush with the law, and hightail it out of town?

Would police be guilty, in the Army's eyes, of aiding and abetting a deserter to escape?

All very ticklish and embarrassing questions. The police decided to hush it up and wait—and HOPE—that the alleged deserter would keep his word.

For the next few hours, quite a few men were biting their badges.

But the next day, at 5 p. m., he came in. He paid his fine, was nabbed, and turned over to the Army.

The Army thanked the Pottstown police for helping them. "It was nothing," one officer reportedly said, "We just played a hunch. Sometimes hunches pay off, sometimes they don't. This time it paid off. We just played a hunch."

Man Here Jailed On AWOL Charge

An 18-year-old AWOL seaman was arrested in Pottstown last night by Sgt. Harold E. Hahn of the borough police.

The man was identified as Donald Everett, US Navy, whose address while on leave was listed as Trenton, N. J. Sgt. Hahn arrested him at 11 p. m. on Beech street, between York and Johnson streets.

Everett was due back at the US Naval Receiving station at the Philadelphia Naval base the past Friday. He failed to return to the post after leaving for Trenton. He is being held in the borough lockup.

The salesman said he would take a judgment out against him.

The client told him to go ahead.

QUITE a number of the "36" contacted by the client were all for his holding out until the drawing was held.

But alas! It may never be now. Because the district attorney's office somehow learned about the whole incident.

The DA dispatched a man to Pottstown. He got the facts in the case the past week.

What the results of the case will be won't be known for a while.

Boy With 'Ear' Astounds Police

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Sept. 28 (AP)—Police were astounded when a nine-year-old boy, opened the safe in the detectives' room in two out of three tries.

A bicycle theft charge against the youngster, not identified, was lodged the past Monday and he was released in custody of his mother.

Yesterday, a policeman saw the boy loitering on a street, took him to the station house.

Then he demonstrated on the official repository.

The boy was taken to the children's shelter at Hawthorne, N. Y.

Ex-King Zog Plans To Sail for France; Final Destination US

shah, said he believes there is "a desperate firebug on the loose." He said the person might be the same one who caused 12 barn fires in Lehigh county the past few weeks.

Graham asked State police at Doylestown, Quakertown and Langhorne to watch for suspicious persons. Some 200 tons of hay and the season's crops were destroyed in the latest fire yesterday at the G. A. Burck farm on the Wrightstone-Richboro road.

Zog has been exiled from his tiny Balkan nation since the Italians invaded it during World War II. He was granted refuge here in 1946 — as was Italy's exiled monarch, the late King Victor Emmanuel — but his diplomatic immunity was withdrawn the past month by the government that ousted his old friend, King Farouk.

It was the withdrawal of that immunity and the discontinuation of Egypt's recognition of the Royalist Albanian legation in this country that prompted Zog to announce he would leave for France. Informed sources said he will stay in France for some time, then go to the United States to live in a mansion he bought on Long Island. Egyptian police raided Zog's villa here the past Saturday and seized some documents. They did not disclose the nature of the papers. They reported finding gold coins believed worth $90,000 in Zog's coffers but did not take them. The former monarch was reported to have brought gold and other valuables worth several million dollars when he came to Alexandria.

It was not known whether Egyptian authorities would permit Zog to take his treasure with him. With Zog will go his American born wife, their son Leka and his four sisters.

300 Told of School Improvements At Season's Opening PTA Meeting

Some 300 persons attended the season's first meeting of Royersford Parent-Teacher association last night in the newly decorated high school auditorium. The auditorium's interior showed part of a vast program of improvements begun three years ago, the details of which were cited during the program. Handsome new curtains and drapes and newly painted walls and ceiling were conspicuous and drew much admiration and favorable comment from the large group attending and speakers on the platform. It was the PTA organization which provided the funds for the purchase of the new drapes and curtains which adorn the stage of the auditorium. They were presented formally to the school district by Paul Bergstresser, president of the PTA, to Clarence Foreman, a member of the board of education, who served as the board's representative in the absence of Paul S. Krasley, president.

THE MEETING began with group singing, led by Richard Strange, music supervisor, serving during a leave of absence granted Alice Schimpf. Two Boy Scouts led in a flag salute, and the Rev. Franklin P. Watts, pastor of the Evangelical and Reformed church, conducted devotions.

Speaking briefly was Ralph Hottenstein, administrative assistant to A. M. Kulp, county superintendent of schools, who was unable to attend.

Hottenstein drew a contrast between the appearance of the auditorium the last time he was here and the way it looked last night. He congratulated the group for that portion of the progress.

Hottenstein told the PTA: "Keep in mind you have a big responsibility," as he evaluated a child. He asked, "What is a child worth?" "I believe," he answered, "a child is our greatest undeveloped resource and you should provide the best money can buy for future citizenry. Not only the child, but the community will benefit."

DR. O. C. KUNTZLEMAN, supervising principal, introduced all new members of the faculty, after which Mrs. G. Fred Schadt, vice-president of the PTA, gave the educational progress report. Mrs. Schadt explained the PTA is not concerned primarily with raising funds, as may be the belief of many. She pointed out "we are interested in the education of the child" and exhibited the new handbooks which were compiled by the PTA. School Director Foreman gave the school district progress report.

US Envoy to Russia Returns for Talks; No Report on Beria

NEW YORK, Sept. 28 (AP)—Charles E. Bohlen, US ambassador to the Soviet Union, came home today on official business and ran into a barrage of questions about Lavrenti Beria.

"I have no comment on that," Bohlen replied when asked about reports that the deposed Russian police commissar had fled the country.

Bohlen arrived by plane from Paris and took off shortly after for Washington for talks at the State department.

He said he was summoned home yesterday, expects to leave for Moscow by Wednesday if the consultations are completed by then.

country. "You know as much as I do about that." Asked when he last saw Beria, the diplomat commented: "Oh, Lord, the last time any foreigner saw him, I think, was during the May day parade."

Bohlen also said he had not personally seen Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov since Stalin's death.

"I don't think any foreigner has seen him," he added.

Bohlen's return is expected to bring news of the latest developments in the Soviet Union.

Third Area Principal Is Announcing $150 Essay Contest Rules

A third Pottstown area school principal is making a school announcement of Pottstown Republican club's $150 essay contest on the possibilities of the Pottsgroves and Pottstown getting together on the Junior-Senior High school level. He is LeRoy R. Brendlinger, principal of Lower Pottsgrove school. Those who announced it in their schools late the past week were Stanley I. Davenport Jr., Pottstown Senior High school principal, and James T. Jones, supervising principal of West Pottsgrove High school. The contest, open to anyone in the Pottstown area, school pupil or adult, will close Oct. 3. Two $25 US bonds will be awarded for the best essays favoring jointure; two $25 bonds for the best essays opposing it, and one $50 bond for the best essay regardless of viewpoint, whether for, against or neutral. Essays should not be more than 500 words. They can be mailed to The Mercury.

300 Told of School Improvements At Season's Opening PTA Meeting

Some 300 persons attended the season's first meeting of Royersford Parent-Teacher association last night in the newly decorated High school auditorium.

The auditorium's interior showed part of a vast program of improvements begun three years ago, the details of which were cited during the program.

Handsome new curtains and drapes and newly painted walls and ceiling were conspicuous and drew much admiration and favorable comment from the large group attending and speakers on the platform.

It was the PTA organization which provided the funds for the purchase of the new drapes and curtains which adorn the stage of the auditorium. They were presented formally to the school district by Paul Bergstresser, president of the PTA, to Clarence Foreman, a member of the board of education, who served as the board's representative in the absence of Paul S. Krasley, president.

THE MEETING began with group singing, led by Richard Strange, music supervisor, serving during a leave of absence granted Alice Schimpf. Two Boy Scouts led in a flag salute, and the Rev. Franklin P. Watts, pastor of the Evangelical and Reformed church, conducted devotions.

Speaking briefly was Ralph Hotenstein, administrative assistant to A. M. Kulp, county superintendent of schools, who was unable to attend.

Hotenstein drew a contrast between the appearance of the auditorium the last time he was here and the way it looked last night. He congratulated the group for that portion of the progress.

Hotenstein told the PTA: "Keep in mind you have a big responsibility," as he evaluated a child. He asked, "What is a child worth?" "I believe," he answered, "a child is our greatest undeveloped resource and you should provide the best money can buy for future citizenry. Not only the child, but the community will benefit."

DR. O. C. KUNTZLEMAN, supervising principal, introduced all new members of the faculty, after which Mrs. G. Fred Schad, vice-president of the PTA, gave the educational progress report. Mrs. Schad explained the PTA is not concerned primarily with raising funds, as may be the belief of many. She pointed out "we are interested in the education of the child" and exhibited the new handbooks which were compiled by the PTA.

School Director Foreman gave the school district progress report.

35 Graduates Dine On Turkey, Ham at Class of '42 Reunion

A reunion of Royersford High school, class of '42, was attended by 35 members and guests Saturday night at the Maria Assunta lodge hall, Pottstown.

Roast turkey and baked ham were served before a brief business meeting. The prayer was offered by the Rev. Richard Gotshall, a member of the class.

Charles Shappell was elected president, Mrs. Mary G. Major, vice president, and Lee Woodling, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Hannah Burkett was appointed chairman of a committee to plan a reunion for next year.

BEFORE CLOSING the meeting a brief history was read concerning the members who were not present.

It was reported that of 42 members in the graduating class, 36 have married and have a total of 49 children; six are unmarried and ten members have moved to other states.

The centerpiece on the speaker's table, a bouquet of flowers arranged in the class colors of duhonnnet and gray, was taken to Peggy Rambo, a class member who is confined to her home.

Attending the affair were: Mrs. Joseph Hozyash (Alberta DiGiuseppe), Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shappell, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Major (Mary Gazillo), Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adams, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller (Doris Beideman), Mr. and Mrs. John Fetterolf, Mrs. Hannah Burkett, Mr. and Mrs. William Hunsberger (Doris Fox), Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Frisoli (Elaine Shelly), Mr. and Mrs. John Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stuffle (Doris Walters), Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weikel and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Woodling, all of Royersford.

Also the Rev. and Mrs. Richard Gotshall, Mattawana; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burke (Edith Capoferri), New Hyde Park, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoffman (Roselyn Green), Pottstown; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Christy (Doris Emery), and Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Hilborn, Spring City.

US Envoy to Russia Returns for Talks; No Report on Beria

NEW YORK, Sept. 28 (AP)—Charles E. Bohlen, US ambassador to the Soviet Union, came home today on official business and ran into a barrage of questions about Lavrenty Beria.

"I have no comment on that," Bohlen replied when asked about reports that the deposed Russian police commissar had fled the country. "You know as much as I do about that."

Asked when he last saw Beria, the diplomat commented: "Oh, Lord, the last time any foreigner saw him, I think, was during the May day parade."

Bohlen also said he had not personally seen Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov since Stalin's death.

"I don't think any foreigner has seen him," he added.

Bohlen arrived by plane from Paris and took off shortly after for Washington for talks at the State department.

He said he was summoned home yesterday, expects to leave for Moscow by Wednesday if the consultations are completed by then.

Pre-Vacation Party Presented Woman

A farewell dinner was given at the Doehler club, Pottstown, Sunday night by a local group in honor of Mrs. Carl Kassel, Phoenixville, who plans to leave Saturday for a two-week vacation trip to Florida. Gifts were presented amid a social time.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Nicola Innocenti and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Capoferri, Royersford; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kassel, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Kassel and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kassel, all of Phoenixville.

Royersford Dinner Party Given for Area Resident

A dinner was given in honor of Joan Vinkler, Skipack, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lightcap Sr., 352 Myrtle street, Royersford, recently.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Lightcap and children Dawn, Louise, Lee and Wendy; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Curry and daughter Patricia Ann, Fleetwood, and Thomas Haley.

'Gas' Hits New Low In Five-Week War

WILKES-BARRE, Sept. 28 (AP)—A five-week "gas" war pushed the price of gasoline to a new low of 17 1/2 cents a gallon today in the entire Wyoming valley area.

When the price war began in mid-August, regular gasoline was selling for about 28 cents a gallon. The price war started in the Kingston area but now has taken in the entire valley. Premium "gas" now sells for from 19.9 to 24.9 a gallon compared to about 27.9 cents a gallon before the war started.

Bulk gasoline distributors here reported they are receiving 16 cents a gallon from the service station operators, of which seven cents represents State and Federal fuel taxes.

Agricultural Group To Be Reorganized

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y., Sept. 28 (AP)—Agriculture Secretary Benson said today his department was reorganizing to give states more control of the Nation's farm program.

Details are not ready for announcement, Benson said, but "the plans we are working on are going to give the State a larger share in developing and serving agriculture."

The plan, he said, follows the recommendations of President Eisenhower. It will simplify and improve the department's internal organization, bring the administration of farm programs close to State and local levels, and fit the programs to local conditions.

Benson spoke at the 35th annual convention of the National association of Commissioners, Secretaries and Directors of Agriculture.

Building Industries Favor Annual Event

The recent parade of the Building Industries exchange may become an annual event in Pottstown. Members expressed themselves in favor of the project at their monthly meeting at Lakeside Inn last night.

The 60 who attended called the first parade a success.

Six new firms were accepted as members during the meeting.

They are Pottstown Metal Welding company; Michael Schneider, steel erector; Peter Nesspor, general contractor; B. Shaffer Sturges, heating and fuel oil; Joseph S. Zeleznick, plumber and Hapfel Lumber company.

President Tilghman K. Hausman was in charge of last night's meeting.

BURGLARS STRIKE —

Entry was gained by breaking a pane of glass in a window on the east side of the store. Plainclothesman Lewis M. Borgiet investigated.

AT THE Douglassville luncheonette, Jack DeLeonardis, 25 East Second street, a partner in the business, who'd closed the place at midnight, discovered the burglary when he reopened it at 8:30 a. m. and found cards and papers from the cash register scattered over the floor.

The burglars broke a pane of glass, next to the latch, in a window that led to the room where equipment is kept for Del's miniature golf course adjoining the luncheonette.

They walked through this room to the main room. After getting the 61 pennies from the cash register, they emptied cigar boxes in a drawer of the bills that were in them. The bills were not the kind with Presidents' pictures on them, police learned.

The burglars did not disturb merchandise or attempt to force open the cigar or jukebox machines.

These machines had been emptied in the two previous burglaries of the luncheonette, the most recent one occurring a year ago.

Reading State police investigated.

AT MORRIS BERMAN'S truck sales building, the burglary was discovered Sunday by Emanuel Berman, a partner. The building had closed Saturday afternoon.

The stolen radio was used in the building. Several dollars in change were taken from a cigarette machine that had been broken open.

Leroy Leister, parts man for the business, said the exact amount stolen wouldn't be known until the company servicing the machine can check it.

Here, too, the burglars entered by breaking a side window. This time, they went out by the front door, which they left open.

West Pottsgrove Police Chief James V. Guadagno is investigating, assisted by Jeffersonville State police.

These three burglaries followed a weekend during which Trinity Reformed church, Hanover and King streets, was victimized twice—first by the thief who stole a loudspeaker from the organ loft, then by a thief who rifled a desk drawer, making off with $1 in change.

The United States spends about 150 million dollars a year on aid to the blind but only about 1 1/2 million dollars of private and public funds on research on eye diseases according to estimates of the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

AREA SCOUTS —

for the Devon show. St. James Lutheran Troop 18 Scouts mounted track last night for their model railroading exhibit. The tracks are attached to a plywood platform measuring four by 12 feet.

Zion's Reformed Troop 5 is mounting a collection of minerals from 30 states for its exhibit.

First Methodist Troop 4 will journey to Devon next Monday to prepare the booth for its first exhibit.

Trinity Reformed Troop 6 worked on its communications exhibit last night. All types of Scout signaling will be demonstrated by this troop.

American Legion Troop 1 is busy with a photography exhibit, and First Presbyterian Troop 3 has woodworking.

NEVIN GENSER, of Trappe, booth chairman of the fair, estimated recently that 400 displays in as many booths will greet visitors when the show opens.

Cub packs, Scout troops and Explorer posts throughout Montgomery and Delaware counties (the Valley Forge council area) will have a part.

Genser described the fair as a "12-ring circus" of Scout skills, including an arena show as well as booth exhibits.

Thirty-five outdoor plots with camping, cooking and wild life displays will also be among the attractions.

New patrol leaders and assistants were elected at the meeting of Troop 3 last night. They are Kenneth Tobias and Robert Barnard (Whipoorwill), and James Boyer and William Ebert (Flying Eagles).

Leonard Ebert, Robert Jeffries and William Yergey joined the troop as Candidate Scouts.

TROOP 3 is planning an inter-patrol contest in such skills as knot-tying, first aid and compass reading.

Robert Weller and Ronald Puhl got the pioneering and swimming merit badges, respectively, at the meeting of Troop 18 last night.

During a court of honor ceremony in charge of committeemen Hanley Oliver and Raymond Yocom, another Scout was promoted to first class rank. He is Elliott Lichtman.

Transfiguration Lutheran Troop 16 did a collective good turn during their meeting Friday night. They cleaned the church in the absence of the janitor, who was ill.

The Rev. Eugene B. Umberger, pastor of the church, explained requirements for the Pro Deo ad Patri church award during the meeting.

Donald Bleim, leader of the Panther patrol, was in charge of opening ceremonies of Troop 6 last night. He led in the salute to the flag and the Scout oath.

SEVERAL LOCAL troops sponsored by Lutheran churches made the eighth annual Scout pilgrimage to Muhlenberg college, Allentown, Saturday.

Among them were Emmanuel Lutheran Troop 8, led by Scoutmaster William Sands and committeemen Merle Rambo and David Lambert; Grace Lutheran Troop 15, led by Scoutmaster Leonard Yergey; Stowe Troop 1, led by Scoutmaster Paul Miller, and St. James Lutheran Troop 18, led by Scoutmaster Edward W. Jameson, Explorer Adviser Walter Wetherhold and the Rev. Edward S. Horn, pastor of St. James church.

At Muhlenberg, the Scouts visited the laboratories and classrooms, toured the campus, attended chapel services and wound up the visit by attending the Muhlenberg-Allentown football game in Allentown stadium.

Negotiators Working On Rubber Union Pact

CINCINNATI, Sept. 28 (AP) — Negotiators for the US Rubber company, and the CIO Rubber Workers union still labored late today on the drafting of a new contract for the company's 35,000 employees in 19 plants.

Although there was no official word, there were indications that the negotiators had agreed on most of the major points at issue including the one on wages.

E. M. Cushing, spokesman for the company, said, however, that the agreement still was in the tentative stage because when the contract is finally written its actual language will have to be approved by both sides. He expressed hope a final agreement could be reached tonight.

Observatory scientists in Philadelphia explained that the appearance of a meteor is a more or less rare occurrence, the last one in this region having been reported more than five years ago.

Marsteller, explained that many reports would have to be checked before the exact path of the meteor could be traced.

He pointed out that it could have appeared a fiery red from one area and whitish or yellow from another. This, too, he said, would aid in tracing its path.

He said any persons viewing the phenomenon could perform a great deal of scientific service if they would send details of their observation to Dr. Charles P. Olivier, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia.

"It would be very valuable if the observers could forward details on how long it traveled, its color, direction and angle of fall," he said.

Right now, Mrs. Robinson has all seven in the new school.

They are Doris, Sixth grade; Janet and Joan, Fifth; Bobby, Fourth; Diane, Third; and David and Dennis, First.

Two other children are in High school, one boy is working, and the oldest, James, is in the Army, stationed at Camp Atterbury, Ind.

Said Mrs. Robinson in a letter to The Mercury yesterday, "We all think The Mercury is a great newspaper and are grateful to it for the many friends we made all over the country through the picture of the children, which was reprinted in many places."

The "Spanish Main" originally referred to the Spanish colonies on the mainland of South America, but the term was extended to include the islands and waters of the Americas which were under Spanish control.

Lord was the main speaker at last night's session, discussing "Achievement and Success."

He pointed out that the rewards for voluntary activity such as the YMCA drives often come in later life. Then, he said, you can see the results of your work in the lives of the boys who have been helped.

"You're rewarded in seeing what you were able to do for the youth of today, the leaders of tomorrow," he said.

Accepting general chairman Jacob Sotter's bid to offer a few words, Jacob Raden, Irvin Riegner and Smith, gave short talks on the value of the campaign.

The dinner was prepared by the Women's auxiliary. Frank Kurtz played the piano.

The next progress report will be made at 6:30 p. m. next Monday at the YMCA.

Building Industries Favor Annual Event

The recent parade of the Building Industries exchange may become an annual event in Pottstown. Members expressed themselves in favor of the project at their monthly meeting at Lakeside inn last night.

The 60 who attended called the first parade a success.

Six new firms were accepted as members during the meeting.

They are Pottstown Metal Welding company; Michael Schneider, steel erector; Peter Nesspor, general contractor; B. Shaeffer, Sturges, heating and fuel oil; Joseph S. Zeleznick, plumber and Happel Lumber company.

President Tilghman K. Hausman was in charge of last night's meeting.

Entry was gained by breaking a pane of glass in a window on the east side of the store. Plainclothesman Lewis M. Borgiet investigated.

AT THE Douglassville luncheonette, Jack DeLeonardis, 25 East Second street, a partner in the business, who'd closed the place at midnight, discovered the burglary when he reopened it at 8:30 a. m. and found cards and papers from the cash register scattered over the floor.

The burglars broke a pane of glass, next to the latch, in a window that led to the room where equipment is kept for Del's miniature golf course adjoining the luncheonette.

They walked through this room to the main room. After getting the 61 pennies from the cash register, they emptied cigar boxes in a drawer of the bills that were in them. The bills were not the kind with Presidents' pictures on them, police learned.

The burglars did not disturb merchandise or attempt to force open the cigarette or jukebox machines.

These machines had been emptied in the two previous burglaries of the luncheonette, the most recent one occurring a year ago.

Reading State police investigated.

AT MORRIS BERMAN'S truck sales building, the burglary was discovered Sunday by Emanuel Berman, a partner. The building had closed Saturday afternoon.

The stolen radio was used in the building. Several dollars in change were taken from a cigarette machine that had been broken open. Leroy Leister, parts man for the business, said the exact amount stolen wouldn't be known until the company servicing the machine can check it.

Here, too, the burglars entered by breaking a side window. This time, they went out by the front door, which they left open.

West Pottsgrove Police Chief James V. Guadagno is investigating, assisted by Jeffersonville State police.

These three burglaries followed a weekend during which Trinity Reformed church, Hanover and King streets, was victimized twice—first by the thief who stole a loudspeaker from the organ loft, and then by a thief who rifled a desk drawer, making off with $1 in change.

The United States spends about 150 million dollars a year on aid to the blind but only about 1½ million dollars of private and public funds on research on eye diseases according to estimates of the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

The plane, operated by Resort Airlines, incorporated, carrying a crew of three and 39 trainees, had taken off from Philadelphia. Most of the trainees were of Puerto Rican

INDIA TELLS UN TO URGE TALKS BY BIG FOUR

Menon Says Humanity Cries for Meeting Of Powers

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Sept. 28 (AP)—India's V. K. Krishna Menon today called on the UN Assembly to request formally a personal meeting of the chiefs of state of the Big Powers in an attempt to solve the world's troubles.

Menon said the peace of the world is the responsibility of the great powers—primarily of the two giants—the United States and the Soviet Union. He said they alone have the means to enforce peace.

He also urged the Assembly to issue a declaration calling on the United States and Russia to promise never to use atomic and hydrogen bombs and other weapons of mass destruction.

Referring to a meeting of the Chiefs of State, he said "This idea is what humanity cries for."

The wavy-haired Indian delegate spoke to the Assembly shortly after Prime Minister Churchill broke into his vacation to declare he still thinks a top level Big Four meeting is a good idea.

SOME DIPLOMATS here said they looked on the Indian proposal coupled with Churchill's statement today as twin moves to put pressure on the United States to agree to a top level conference on world problems.

Menon apparently meant that Britain, the United States and the Soviet Union should send their chiefs of state to such a conference. He quoted statements from them on the desirability of peace and said at least a start must be made on solving the world's problems.

He also mentioned that President Auriol of France had called for a Big Four conference in an address to the Assembly in 1951. The United States delegation said any reaction to Menon's proposal on a meeting of the Big Powers would have to come from Washington since it involved the President.

Churchill Reaffirms Proposal for Meeting

LONDON, Sept. 28 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill took time out from his vacation tonight to make clear that he still thinks a top level "Big Four" meeting is a good idea.

At the same time, the 78-year-old statesman—who is sunning himself on the French Riviera on doctor's orders—bluntly rejected Laborite complaints that he has abdicated his job of running British foreign policy.

The announcement from No. 10 Downing street came as Socialist party leaders convening at Margate protested that Churchill's proposal for a Big Four meeting had been overruled by his deputies who are now in real control of the Government.

Churchill "has in no way changed his mind about the proposals contained in his speech of May 11," said the unusual Downing street statement issued under the Prime Minister's okay. "It is untrue that these involved any difference with his colleagues."

Coroner's Jury Hears Father Testify He 'Stepped on Baby Four, Five Times'

CHICAGO, Sept. 28 (AP)—A sobbing father today told a coroner's jury that he hurled his baby son across a room and "stepped on him four or five times with my heel."

James Dodd, 32, told his story at an inquest into the death of the 2-year-old boy, James Jr. The infant was beaten Thursday, and died the next day in a hospital.

The jurors directed that Dodd be held to the grand jury

on a murder charge. He has been held on a murder charge on a complaint signed by his embittered wife, Ruby, 23.

Dodd, unshaven and red-eyed, wept from time to time as he testified.

He said little Jimmy fell out of his highchair, and he slapped the child.

"I tossed him six feet to the bed, but missed," Dodd related. "Then I stepped on him four or five times with my heel. I must have gone completely crazy because I did love him."

"When I get mad, I seem to lose my mind. I think I go temporarily insane."

Dodd, who talked on the witness stand only after Coroner Walter B. McCarron demanded that he testify, said he didn't want his wife to work because he made $136 a week as a screw machine operator. His wife was working as a waitress at the time their son was beaten.

Mrs. Dodd told the jurors she found Jimmy badly bruised on a number of occasions when she came home from work.

"He loved our daughter (Libby Anne, 4) but he didn't like Jimmy," she testified.

She said she married Dodd when she was 15 in his home town, Texarkana, Tex. She formerly lived in Beaumont, Tex. They came to Chicago in 1948.

Dodd said he served in the US Army during World War II, was in action as infantryman and received the European theater ribbon with six battle stars and a good conduct medal.

Outdoor Living - At Home

Design and planting for outdoor living bring enjoyment at home to both children and parents. Planting for privacy, shade, play and picnics, reduces exposure to the hazards of traffic, the risks of public contagion, the fatigue of travel.

The cost of adapting the premises to outdoor living is generally less than the cost of furnishing a room indoors or that of a vacation trip. It is entirely dependent upon the size and nature of the plants desired, from $50.00 upwards.

Get The Facts - - -

We specialize in design and planting for Outdoor Living—At Home. We are glad to submit itemized facts—planting plans and estimates, without charge or obligation. We suggest that you first see Farr plantings in your neighborhood; that you drive thru our nursery by your self; that you send for our booklet on "Outdoor Living At Home." . . . not followed by our representatives.

Then ask us for an interview, suggestions, planting plans and itemized estimates, if, as, desired. After that, see the plants which you desire in our nursery.

Save With Facts - - -

You then have facts which, whether you buy from us or not, will enable you to buy landscaping as wisely as you buy other items. Who can afford to do otherwise? Why not drive thru our nursery this evening or this weekend? Why not give the children and yourself more enjoyment at home?

ACCORD REACHED ON SUEZ CANAL, EGYPT REPORTS

British to Withdraw Troops From Area In 18 Months

CAIRO, Egypt, Sept. 28 (AP)—Egyptian officials said today Britain has agreed to withdraw her big garrison from the vital Suez Canal area in 18 months, but the British envoy here said final settlement of the old and often bloody feud is still a long way off.

Even though there may be agreement on the withdrawal of troops—and Britain has indicated she is willing to do this provided some arrangement is made for defense of the strategic waterway in case of an attack—an official-Egyptian source made it clear that the negotiations still could break down on some other issue.

Major questions still outstanding, the informant said in a report, were how long British civilian experts would remain behind to see that the great shipping canal runs smoothly and whether they should be permitted to wear identifying uniforms.

Britain wants them uniformed and wants them to stay on for seven years. Egypt is against the uniform and threatens to break off negotiations even on this point. She also demands that they leave after six years, turning the whole works over to the Egyptian technicians they are to train.

The negotiations now going on have been described as "informal" talks behind closed doors, aimed at paving the way for formal negotiations toward a final agreement. The negotiators held a long secret meeting tonight at the residence of Lt. Gen. Sir Brian Robertson, chief British negotiator.

Present indications are that the Egyptians and the British are closer to agreement now than they ever were before in the more than 70 years of bitter wrangling over control of the canal.

A British embassy spokesman said the two points of view were inching nearer but cautioned that formal talks to iron out details and the necessity of making proper translations of final agreements would take a long time.

Full Commander in Navy Takes Drop In Rank to Answer Higher Calling

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28 (AP)—At 10:17 a. m. today the way was cleared for Comdr. Herman MacGorick Kennickell of the US Navy to drop down to a mere lieutenant (J. G.).

Kennickell wanted it that way. So, with the Rt. Rev. Angus Dun, Episcopal bishop of Washington, conducting the services in St. John's Episcopal church across from the White House, Kennickell was ordained a priest.

Up stepped rear Admiral Edward Harp, chief of the Navy's chaplains, to welcome him into the chaplains corps and hand him the shoulder boards that showed he now would be Lt. (J. G.) Kennickell.

NAVY HISTORIANS say they believe it's the first time a full commander ever dropped down to start all over as a chaplain.

Kennickell is a cheerful 32-year-old father of three who has been a Navy man since he was 20. His wife is the former Frances Wyckoff of Savannah, Ga., Kennickell attended Mars Hill (N. C.) Junior college and Furman university in Greenville, S. C.

He saw service on a mine-sweeper at Okinawa and Iwo Jima, and came out of the Navy, briefly, in 1945 as a lieutenant commander. Eight months later he was back in, serving as inspector-instructor and officer in charge of Navy training centers in Winston-Salem, N. C., Spartansburg, S. C., and Greenville, S. C.

A nice life, that, but all the time "Mac" Kennickell was thinking about chucking it all for the ministry.

"At first, I thought I'd be a lay leader, and do what I could there," he said. "Finally I came to the realization that the Christian ministry would be the most meaningful life to me."

IN 1951 he took the big plunge. He went on inactive duty, and enrolled in the Virginia Theological seminary in Alexandria, Va. By going to school Summers at the Union Theological seminary he managed to cram three years' work into two.

How much of a financial drop would his new job be?

"Well, a commander makes around $2500 a year more than I'll make."

Kennickell thinks he has an ideal background for a Navy chaplain. Not only has he 12 years in the Navy, but he also has a varied religious background which he says should help him in dealing with those of all faiths.

My folks were Presbyterians who went to a Methodist church because we had no Presbyterian church near us. I joined the Episcopal church, and went to Furman, a Baptist school.

THREE TESTIFY ARMY REPORT IS PROPAGANDA

Fugitive Russians, Ex-Red Call Document 'Harmful'

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28 (AP)—A pair of fugitive Russians and a former top American Red told Senate investigators today an Army report used to train intelligence officers is loaded with Communist propaganda.

The Army contends the document, called "Psychological and Cultural Traits in Soviet Siberia" isn't Red propaganda at all and was intended merely to give intelligence officers a picture of the Russian people for use in event of war.

But Louis Budenz, a high level Communist party official in this country for ten years, told a Senate Investigations subcommittee, headed by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.).

"In my opinion, this document . . . is the work of a concealed Communist."

Igor Bogolepov, who said he is a former Soviet diplomat and Army officer now under a Kremlin death sentence, described the report as "extremely damaging."

"I find there is a lot of deliberate misinformation that serves the Communist cause," he testified.

Vladimir Petrov, a Yale university faculty member who was imprisoned in Siberia for six years, described the report as "extremely biased in favor of the Soviet regime in Russia." As a training manual for American intelligence officers, he said, the pamphlet would be "definitely harmful."

Employees Support Orphans in Korea

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28 (AP)—Ninety-eight employees of the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation here have undertaken the support of 120 Korean orphans in the San Yook Lisabed Children's home in Seoul.

Mary E. Switzer, director of the office, announced today that the employees sent a check for $150 to the American-Korean foundation for the support of the children. This was the second monthly contribution by the group.

She said the check for $150 "will more than meet the monthly cash budget for the home."

She described most of the children as war-disabled and said they range in age from three to 17 years.

22 Killed as Plane Carrying Soldiers To Ft. Knox Nose Dives in Landing

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 28—At least 22 men lost their lives today when a plane carrying soldiers trainees from Camp Kilmer, New Jersey, crashed and burned at Standiford field, Louisville.

All the 20 others aboard the twin-engine plane were injured.

The plane, operated by Resort Airlines, incorporated, carrying a crew of three and 39 trainees, had taken off from Philadelphia. Most of the trainees were of Puerto Rican ancestry and were being taken to Fort Knox, Ky.

Deputy Coroner Harry Ellstone said the dead included the plane's captain, Wharton A. Moller, 34, San Antonio, Texas, and the co-pilot, John Dewitt Pickel, 32, San Antonio.

Stewardess Dorothy Jean Bush, 32, Miami, Fla., lost a leg in the disaster, a hospital reported.

THE ACCIDENT occurred about 4:19 p. m., as the plane tried to land at Standiford field, on Louisville's outskirts.

The craft almost touched its wheels to the runway, then climbed to about 150 feet and nose dived to the field. The plane broke in half at the middle, and both engines burst into flames.

The passengers in the rear portion were spilled about the field. "There wasn't much we could do about the fire," said Fire Captain Marion Norris. "People were lying all over the place, and we handled those we could."

County Policeman John Risor, one of the first persons on the scene, reported that "we just started dragging people out of the plane as best we could. Some of them were pretty badly mangled."

The stricken plane was one of five bringing soldiers from Camp Kilmer. The first landed safely. After the second plane crashed, the three others were directed to Bowman field, also in Louisville. Bodies, some decapitated, were scattered as far as 100 feet from the flaming, twisted wreckage.

Flames started in the left engine when the ship crashed on the grass. The flames spread rapidly to the right engine.

Carl South, a transportation agent for Trans World Airlines, saw the crash. He said the plane came into his view at slightly under 1000 feet altitude.

All appeared normal as the craft descended until he noticed that the left elevator flap on the tail dropped down, he said. As this occurred, the plane straightened into level flight. Then it nosed up momentarily and plummeted to the earth, he added.

Some bodies and injured men were trapped in the crumpled part of the fuselage.

The impact tore off the shoes of many aboard the plane and scattered them throughout the field and oil-smearred ruins.

Out the Window

'Here Comes the Bride' - Groom Skips

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 29—They had to call off the wedding in Princess Anne county jail Sunday. Before anybody got a chance to strike up "Here Comes the Bride," there went the groom—right out the window.

The bridegroom-elect, Thomas E. Deagle, serving eight years for storebreaking, fled the lockup with another prisoner, Thomas Roark, two hours prior to the scheduled ceremony. The two clambered through a second-story window while the bride-to-be, 17-year-old Lillian Lillian, looked on and the bridesmaid tried vainly to foil the escape.

Seven hours after the nuptial rites were to have been performed, Deagle returned meekly to the jail, thoroughly drenched from a steady rain, and surrendered. Too late, though. The rest of the wedding party had gone home.

Jailer Andrew W. Ship had left the wedding party in the room while he went to the first floor to usher the bridegroom's best man and three others out of the jail when the break occurred at 12:40 p. m.

Coroner's Jury Hears Father Testify He 'Stepped on Baby Four, Five Times'

CHICAGO, Sept. 28—A sobbing father today told a coroner's jury that he hurled his baby son across a room and "stepped on him four or five times with my heel."

James Dodd, 32, told his story at an inquest into the death of the 2-year-old boy, James Jr. The infant was beaten Thursday, and died the next day in a hospital.

The jurors directed that Dodd be held to the grand jury

on a murder charge. He has been held on a murder charge on a complaint signed by his embittered wife, Ruby, 23.

Dodd, unshaven and red-eyed, wept from time to time as he testified.

He said little Jimmy fell out of his highchair, and he slapped the child.

"I tossed him six feet to the bed, but missed," Dodd related. "Then I stepped on him four or five times with my heel. I must have gone completely crazy because I did love him."

"When I get mad, I seem to lose my mind. I think I go temporarily insane."

Dodd, who talked on the witness stand only after Coroner Walter B. McCarron demanded that he testify, said he didn't want his wife to work because he made $136 a week as a screw machine operator. His wife was working as a waitress at the time their son was beaten.

Mrs. Dodd told the jurors she found Jimmy badly bruised on a number of occasions when she came home from work.

"He loved our daughter (Libby Anne, 4) but he didn't like Jimmy," she testified.

She said she married Dodd when she was 15 in his home town, Texarkana, Tex. She formerly lived in Beaumont, Tex. They came to Chicago in 1948.

Dodd said he served in the US Army during World War II, was in action as infantryman and received the European theater ribbon with six battle stars and a good conduct medal.

Outdoor Living - At Home

Design and planting for outdoor living bring enjoyment at home to both children and parents. Planting for privacy, shade, play and picnics, reduces exposure to the hazards of traffic, the risks of public contagion, the fatigue of travel.

The cost of adapting the premises to outdoor living is generally less than the cost of furnishing a room indoors or that of a vacation trip. It is entirely dependent upon the size and nature of the plants desired, from $50.00 upwards.

Get The Facts - - -

We specialize in design and planting for Outdoor Living-At Home. We are glad to submit itemized facts—planting plans and estimates, without charge or obligation. We suggest that you first see Farr plantings in your neighborhood; that you drive thru our nursery by yourself, that you send for our booklet on "Outdoor Living At Home." . . . not followed by our representatives.

Then ask us for an interview, suggestions, planting plans and itemized estimates, if, as, desired. After that, see the plants which you desire in our nursery.

Save With Facts - - -

You then have facts which, whether you buy from us or not, will enable you to buy landscaping as wisely as you buy other items. Who can afford to do otherwise? Why not drive thru our nursery this evening or this weekend? Why not give the children and yourself more enjoyment at home?

SMILES OF HAPPINESS are registered on the faces of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lavinia as they peer from the back of their car after the wedding ceremony in St. Gabriel's Catholic church, Stowe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Francis Suchanek. Mrs. Lavinia, daughter of Mr. Lawrence Marquette, is the former Nancy Lee Marquette, 211 West street. The groom is the son of Mrs. Mary Lavinia, 18 Elm street, Stowe.

Nancy Marquette Becomes Bride of Richard Lavinia

An afternoon ceremony performed in St. Gabriel's Catholic church, Stowe, united in marriage Nancy Lee Marquette, 211 West street, and Richard A. Lavinia, 18 Elm street, Stowe.

Father of the bride is Lawrence Marquette, 211 West street. Mr. Lavinia is the son of Mrs. Mary Lavinia, 18 Elm street, Stowe. The Rev. Francis Suchanek officiated before an altar banked with white lilies, pompons and palms.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of nylon tulle and lace over bridal satin. The strapless bodice was covered with a lace jacket which featured a mandarin collar and long tapered sleeves.

An apron effect of lace fell over a bouffant skirt of nylon tulle. With it the bride wore white satin slippers and a cross, a gift of the groom.

As matron of honor, Mrs. Patrick Serba was attired in a ballerina length gown of peacock blue taffeta. Rhinestones studded the strapless bodice which was covered with a matching bolero.

Her bouffant skirt was accented with a bustle effect. She wore a bonnet of the same shade of blue.

Mrs. Serba carried a nosegay of yellow and rust mums and autumn leaves.

Leonard Lavinia, Birdsboro, served as best man for his brother. A reception for 175 guests at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Gerald Hartenstine, 5 East Sixth street, followed the ceremony.

The mother of the groom wore a navy blue dress with navy accessories and a gardenia corsage. Also receiving was Mrs. Daniel Egolf. She chose a light blue suit with black accessories and corsage of gardenias. Upon their return from a honeymoon in New York, the couple will reside at 18 Elm street, Stowe.

For going-away, the bride chose a royal blue velvet suit with black accessories and the orchid from her bridal douquet. Out-of-town guests attended the wedding from Temple, Philadelphia, and Canada. The bride is a graduate of Pottstown High school and is employed by the Sweet-Orr company.

Mr. Lavinia attended West Pottsgrove High school and is employed by the Doehler-Jarvis division.

Fay Horner and John Keiter Married In Double Ring Ceremony at Linfield

Linfield Evangelical and Reformed church was the scene of the wedding uniting Fay E. Horner and John J. Keiter. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Albert Teske.

Miss Horner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Horner, Linfield. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Keiter, 543 Walnut street, Royersford.

One hundred persons attended the wedding which took place Saturday at 1 o'clock.

The altar was decorated with white chrysanthemums and ferns. Organ music was played by Clarence Daub. He played "Because" and "Lord's Prayer."

Maid of honor, Nancy Horner,

wore a gown of lilac taffeta over tulle, with matching headpiece. Her old fashioned bouquet was of yellow pom-poms.

Best man was Jack McCann, Fourth avenue, Royersford. Ushers were Mark Horner, Linfield, brother of the bride and Robert Watson, brother-in-law of the groom.

Mother of the bride wore a navy dress with a coral hat and a corsage of white pom-poms.

The groom's mother was dressed in gray with a black hat and a corsage also of white pom-poms. A reception was held in the social room of the church. It was decorated with white flowers and wedding bells on the table with a large wedding cake in the center.

Seventy-five persons attended the affair, hosted by Theresa Gauger, assisted by her Sunday school class, after which the couple left for a few days honeymoon.

The bride's going away costume was a gray suit with red accessories and a white rose corsage.

They will make their home in Linfield.

Guests were present from Philadelphia, Pottstown, Royersford, Reading, California and Spring City.

The groom is employed in the Cromby mills, Phoenixville. The bride works in the office of the Kinsey Distillery.

Mrs. Tekla Kepps, Displaced Person From Latvia Is Guest Speaker at WSCS Plant Display Meeting

Mrs. Robert Herpst hosted a recent meeting of the WSCS of the Nantmeal Methodist church. A special feature of the evening was a plant display and sale.

"A Sower Went Forth" was the theme of the devotional program which opened the meeting. The discussion and prayer meditation was led by Margaret Murray, spiritual life secretary, and the following members of her committee: Mrs. Claire McAfee and Mrs. Leonard Cadwell.

Barbara Herpst accompanied the group in the singing of "O Master Let Me Walk With Thee."

Mrs. Harry Reed, president, conducted the business session. The minutes were recorded by Mrs. Leonard Cadwell. Reports of the visiting and card committees were heard. Announcement was made of the West District meeting to be held on Oct. 20 in the Honeybrook Methodist church, Honeybrook.

The week of Oct. 25-30 will be set aside as the "Week of Prayer and Self Denial."

On Oct. 6 the society will travel to the Glen Moore Methodist church to participate in a service to be given by the Puerto Ricans of the Fifth Street Mission.

Oct. 3 is the date set for open house at the Cornwell Methodist Home for the aged, Cornwall.

Ethel Eachus, supply secretary, announced that Christmas packages for the Deaconess Home, Philadelphia, should be brought to the November meeting.

Members of the visiting committee for October include: Mrs. Warren Gordon, Mrs. John Loomis, Mrs. Charles Garvine and Mrs. Ira Wilson.

Mrs. Tekla Kepps, guest speaker, told of her experiences as a displaced person from Latvia.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Robert Herpst, Mrs. John Shillady and Mrs. Earl Herpst.

Mrs. Davis Loomis will hostess the next meeting of the group.

Nancy Marquette Becomes Bride of Richard Lavinia

An afternoon ceremony performed in St. Gabriel's Catholic church, Stowe, united in marriage Nancy Lee Marquette, 211 West street, and Richard A. Lavinia, 18 Elm street, Stowe.

Father of the bride is Lawrence Marquette, 211 West street. Mr. Lavinia is the son of Mrs. Mary Lavinia, 18 Elm street, Stowe.

The Rev. Francis Suchanek officiated before an altar banked with white lilies, pompons and palms.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of nylon tulle and lace over bridal satin. The strapless bodice was covered with a lace jacket which featured a mandarin collar and long tapered sleeves.

An apron effect of lace fell over a bouffant skirt of nylon tulle. With it the bride wore white satin slippers and a cross, a gift of the groom.

As matron of honor, Mrs. Patrick Serba was attired in a ballerina length gown of peacock blue taffeta. Rhinestones studded the strapless bodice which was covered with a matching bolero.

Mrs. Serba carried a nosegay of yellow and rust mums and autumn leaves.

Leonard Lavinia, Birdsboro, served as best man for his brother.

A reception for 175 guests at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Gerald Hartenstine, 5 East Sixth street, followed the ceremony.

The mother of the groom wore a navy blue dress with navy accessories and a gardenia corsage. Also receiving was Mrs. Daniel Ego. She chose a light blue suit with black accessories and corsage of gardenias.

Upon their return from a honeymoon in New York, the couple will reside at 18 Elm street, Stowe.

For going-away, the bride chose a royal blue velvet suit with black accessories and the orchid from her bridal douquet.

Out-of-town guests attended the wedding from Temple, Philadelphia, and Canada.

The bride is a graduate of Pottstown High school and is employed by the Sweet-Orr company.

Mr. Lavinia attended West Pottsgrove High school and is employed by the Doehler-Jarvis division.

Fay Horner and John Keiter Married In Double Ring Ceremony at Linfield

Linfield Evangelical and Reformed church was the scene of the wedding uniting Fay E. Horner and John J. Keiter.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Albert Teske.

Miss Horner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Horner, Linfield. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Keiter, 543 Walnut street, Royersford.

One hundred persons attended the wedding which took place Saturday at 1 o'clock.

The altar was decorated with white chrysanthemums and ferns.

Organ music was played by Clarence Daub. He played "Benedictus" and "Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle. Her headpiece was of seeder pearls with a shoulder length veil.

She carried an old fashioned bouquet of white roses and baby's breath.

Maid of honor, Nancy Horner,

wore a gown of lilac taffeta over tulle, with matching headpiece.

Her old fashioned bouquet was of yellow pom-poms.

Best man was Jack McCann, Fourth avenue, Royersford. Ushers were Mark Horner, Linfield, brother of the bride and Robert Watson, brother-in-law of the groom.

Mother of the bride wore a navy dress with a coral hat and a corsage of white pom-poms.

The groom's mother was dressed in gray with a black hat and a corsage also of white pom-poms.

A reception was held in the social room of the church. It was decorated with white flowers and wedding bells on the table with a large wedding cake in the center.

Seventy-five persons attended the affair, hosted by Theresa Gauger, assisted by her Sunday school class, after which the couple left for a few days honeymoon.

The bride's going away costume was a gray suit with red accessories and a white rose corsage.

Guests were present from Philadelphia, Pottstown, Royersford, Reading, California and Spring City.

Harvest Home Observed At East Vincent Church

Harvest Home was observed Sunday at the East Vincent Evangelical and Reformed church when a large quantity of food, fresh as well as canned fruits and vegetables, was brought by the congregation and later presented to the Reformed Church Home for the Aged, Wyncote.

The arrangement in the front of the church was in charge of members of the Women's Guild.

Mrs. Tekla Kepps, Displaced Person From Latvia Is Guest Speaker at WSCS Plant Display Meeting

Mrs. Robert Herpst hosted a recent meeting of the WSCS of the Nantmeal Methodist church. A special feature of the evening was a plant display and sale.

"A Sower Went Forth" was the theme of the devotional program which opened the meeting. The discussion and prayer meditation was led by Margaret Murray, spiritual life secretary, and the following members of her committee: Mrs. Claire McAfee and Mrs. Leonard Cadwell.

Barbara Herpst accompanied the group in the singing of "O Master Let Me Walk With Thee."

Mrs. Harry Reed, president, conducted the business session. The minutes were recorded by

Mrs. Leonard Cadwell.

Reports of the visiting and card committees were heard. Announcement was made of the West District meeting to be held on Oct. 20 in the Honeybrook Methodist church, Honeybrook.

The week of Oct. 25-30 will be set aside as the "Week of Prayer and Self Denial."

On Oct. 6 the society will travel to the Glen Moore Methodist church to participate in a service to be given by the Puerto Ricans of the Fifth Street Mission.

Oct. 3 is the date set for open house at the Cornwall Methodist Home for the aged, Cornwall.

Ethel Eachus, supply secretary, announced that Christmas packages for the Deaconess Home, Philadelphia, should be brought to the November meeting.

Members of the visiting committee for October include: Mrs. Warren Gordon, Mrs. John Loomis, Mrs. Charles Garvine and Mrs. Ira Wilson.

Mrs. Tekla Kepps, guest speaker, told of her experiences as a displaced person from Latvia.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Robert Herpst, Mrs. John Shillady and Mrs. Earl Herpst.

Mrs. Davis Loomis will hostess the next meeting of the group.

Dorothy Crosland, Blaine Mowrer Wed Before 300 at Church Rites

Appropriately 300 guests witnessed the recent ceremony which united in marriage Dorothy Mae Crosland, Pottstown RD 2, and Blaine Franklin Mowrer, Spring City RD 1.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Crosland, Pottstown RD 2. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. B. Franklin Mowrer, Spring City RD 1.

Bethel Methodist church, Spring City RD 1, was the scene of the double ring rites performed by the Rev. Thomas Anderson.

Palms banked the altar and baskets of gladioli, lilies, pompons and chrysanthemums decorated the chancel.

Mrs. Joseph Somics, Spring City RD 1, presented a half hour recital of organ music preceding the ceremony.

Iris Gill, West Chester RD 2, sang "O Promise Me," "O Perfect Love," "Because" and the "Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gownned in Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over white bridal satin. The basque bodice was studded with imported rhinestones and featured an illusion neckline.

A bouffant skirt of Chantilly lace fell over a ruffled underskirt and extended into a chapel length train. The hemline and the train were edged with scallops.

She carried a spray of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Laura Jean Crosland, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Her gown of light blue net and Chantilly lace was styled with a strapless bodice and a matching scalloped cape of lace.

A floor length skirt of net fell over an underskirt of taffeta. She wore a beaded tiara and matching mitts and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of pink and blue carnations.

Bridesmaids were: Marjorie and Lois Adams, cousins of the bride, Havertown, and Dawn Mowrer, sister of the groom, Spring City RD 1.

They were attired in cotton blue gowns styled identical to that of the maid-of-honor. Each carried an old-fashioned bouquet of pink carnations tied with blue streamers.

Best man was Robert McKissic, Spring City, and ushers included: Howard Mowrer, brother of the bridegroom, Royersford RD 1; George Crosland Jr., brother of the bride, Pottstown RD 2; and Donald Donahue, Spring City.

A reception for 275 guests in the church social hall followed the ceremony. Baskets of fresh flowers, crepe paper streamers and crepe paper flowers in pastel shades decorated the hall.

The mother of the bride wore a dress of powder blue Chantilly lace over taffeta. Her accessories were black and her matching velvet hat was studded with rhinestones and pearls.

Mrs. Mowrer chose a navy blue lace dress with a pink hat and navy accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

The newlyweds will honeymoon for two weeks in Florida. In a few months they will move into their home at Pottstown RD 2.

After graduating with the class of 1951 from the Spring City High school, the bride attended the West Chester State Teachers college. Prior to her marriage she was employed by the B. F. Goodrich company, Oaks.

Mr. Mowrer attended Spring City High school and is employed by the Spring-Ford tannery, Royersford.

Out-of-town guests attended the wedding from Delaware, New Jersey, Philadelphia, Havertown, Drexel Hill, Oakmont, Glen Mills.

Want to save yourself time in the kitchen? While you're cleaning up after one day's dinner, start some preparation for a following day's meal. You can boil potatoes, for instance, for salad; or you can prepare a quick gelatin dessert and put it in the refrigerator to set and chill.

Convention to Be Held By Fisher Bible Class
Members of the Fisher Bible class of the Church of the Transfiguration will meet tonight in the church for their convention. The annual congress dinner will be held at Emmanuel Lutheran church the same evening.

Women of the Moose Make Plans for Christmas Party; Entertainment to be Supplied by Members' Children

Final plans for a Christmas party in October were discussed at a recent meeting of the Women of the Moose.

Date set for the party is Oct. 8. Sponsors of the affair will be the Moosehart and Moosehaven committees.

Members are asked to bring gifts to be forwarded to the children at Moosehart and the aged guests at Moosehaven.

The Moosehart committee announced that the present needs of the children include: practical wearing apparel for children over eight years of age and jewelry, cosmetics and sports equipment for teenagers.

Haberdashery, toiletries for women, sweaters and soft candies are gifts that would be welcomed at Moosehaven.

Entertainment for the Christmas event will be supplied by the children and grandchildren of the members. Mrs. Raymond Seyler, chairman of the Moosehart committee and Mrs. Joseph Walent, chairman of the Moosehaven committee will be in charge.

Edith Flanagan will head the social committee. Committee workers include: Mrs. John Ganter, Mrs. Chester Stine, Mrs. LeRoy Fredd, Mrs. Joseph Walent, Sally Fidler and Mrs. William Nyman.

Clara Sell, Mrs. Steven Ondik, Anna Schoch, Mrs. Charles Ulrich, Sue Lazensky and Frances Sobczinski. The social committee will have charge of decorations and refreshments.

Pottstown Backs Dodgers 6 to 4 to Beat Yankees in World Series

By ED TAGGERT
The odds favoring the New York Yankees to win the World Series took a drop yesterday. The Gotham handycappers were heard whispering that Pottstown is going solid Dodger.

When the Mercury's sports poll is released, the world's champs are apt to enter tomorrow's opener at Yankee Stadium as the underdog. Just how much effect the opinion of 100 Pottstown baseball fans has on the national odds, remain to be seen.

Pottstown likes the Brooklyn Dodgers 6 to 4. Of the 100 men and women questioned, 60 said the Dodgers would capture the crown and only 40 were willing to string along with the Yanks.

This is contrary to the New York odds which rank the American league team a 6 1/2 to 4 choice. But the Yankee support dropped a half point yesterday and by game time tomorrow the big city boys may see things in a similar light to the Pottstown experts.

Actually 102 persons were contacted in the poll but one said he knew nothing about baseball and the other said he didn't want to know anything about baseball. The latter gent, Paul Callow, 32 North Evans street, said:

"I'm not an anti-baseball fan—rather I'm an anti-baseball fan." Meaning he was sick and tired of hearing the fellows at the plant talk nothing but World Series.

GETTING BACK to those who did voice an opinion, and most were supremely confident, the trend started with plenty of Yankee support but gradually shifted to the Brooklyn side.

The first man to cast a vocal ballot was Nick Szymanski. Although tied up with a bevy of Brooks Country club golf scores to compile, Nick took a brief spell to give a brief prediction—"Yanks, Dodgers, Yanks, Yanks, Yanks."

In complete agreement with Szymanski was Bill Reed, of McCarthy apartments:

"Who'll win the World Series? That's a silly question! Who always wins them? Why those guys are invincible. It'll only takes five games for them to win, too. Yep, the Yanks are my choice."

Even more decisive was Patrolman Daniel Kegel who believes, "The Yanks will wipe 'em out in four straight." The rest of the police force also leaned heavily toward the Stengelmans.

Desk Sgt. Russell Hummel said, "Yankees without a doubt - will go to the limit."

SGT. THOMAS A. LAWLER had this to say, "I'll take the Yanks in six games. I've been a Yankee man since I was a kid. They're money players and money players will take spirit players any time."

As an oldtime friend of Yankee first baseman Joe Collins, Patrolman Lorin Leuthold hopes the Bronx Bombers can win their fifth straight world title.

A dissenting vote came from Patrolman Bill Mars. "Brooklyn will take them in seven. I've never been for those Yankees and I think they're going to get it this year."

If the prediction of motor Patrolman Paul Galloway is correct, he will wear the crown of the "Clairvoyant Cop."

"I'm going to tell you right now it's going to go at least eight games. They're going to get so tired and worn out that they'll tie at least one game and have to play eight."

When the big vote from the Doehler-Jarvis plant came in the odds took a definite shift to the Dodgers. Forty-eight men offered an opinion on the Series and 27 favored the Bums.

George and Dennis Wausnock and George Armstrong all picked Brooklyn to win in four straight. The Wausnocks will be in the stands at Yankee Stadium tomorrow rooting for the Brooks to uphold their prediction.

"THE DODGERS have the best hitters, best fielders and best pitchers," says Mike Oskiera. "They'll win in five."

Others at Doehler's who go along with Oskiera's 4-1 pick are Ted Vapniorok, Mike Koren, Augie Krause, and John J. Murray, who was born in Brooklyn and will be rooting for the Ebbets field gang as hard as anyone.

The most general consensus at the D-J plant was the Dodgers in six. In this group were Gillie Steltz, Frank Buttarlo, Mike Groth, Joe Klaptosky, Dick Reazor, Adam Brauner, Sam Shalaway, Al Sel-domridge, Don Mourar, Bob Pennington, Earl Dierolf, Don As-theimer and Joe Bogdon.

Those who feel the Dodgers will win but will need seven games to do it are George Ruyak, Bill Keim, John Thompson, Sam Wright, Cal Roop and Tom Kaas.

Of the 21 Doehler men who like the Yanks, two could see them taking the crown in four games. Andy Koren and Paul Kohler were

the pair to go the farthest out on the limb.

Slightly more conservative were those who saw it 4-1 for the Yanks. They are Bud Saylor, Russ Franklin and Ralph Dorsey. For the Yankees in six games are J. M. Mace, Carl Christ, George Trolinger, Tony Lucarelli, Chill Garner, Joe Dobry, Keith Jamison, Charlie Schirk and Les Heller.

SEVEN MEN in the Yankee camp figured the champs would retain the title after a seven game hassle. Heading this contingent is veteran ball player Cracker Boughter. With him are Ed Jameson, Charlie Grabert, Gil Harvey, Leon Tom, Jim Walters and Paul Moyer.

The ladies like the Bums. If for technical or sentimental reason, the female voters, few though they were, stuck by the contenders 100 percent.

Waitress Sally Hylan—"The Dodgers are my sentimental favorite. The Yanks have won too often and I hope they lose."

Mrs. Dick Ricketts Sr.—"I'm unable to speak for my husband but I'm definitely rooting for Brooklyn. I think they'll win in seven games."

Housewife Rose Strange—"I'm from Long Island so how can I root against the Dodgers."

WAITRESS CASS OSKIERA — "That Peeewe Reese is such a nice boy, I hope his team wins for a change."

And so the voice of the sports fan is being heard throughout Pottstown. Tomorrow the Mercury sports poll will be continued telling the opinion of the local coaches who should know what they're talking about. Also other men about town will tell why they like the chances of their favorites.

In the meantime watch the odds drop on the Yanks when the big town book makers learn of the Pottstown vote.

Hughes, Keifrider, Lipko Score

Trojans Jayvees Top Upper Merion

The Pottstown High junior varsity football team socked an 18-0 defeat on Upper Merion Jayvees yesterday afternoon to repay the little Spartans for the havoc their older brothers caused at Franklin field the past Thursday night.

JIM GIBBONS ... Directs JVs

The young Trojans had things their own way throughout as they scored twice in the second period and again in the third.

Wayne Hughes scored Pottstown's first TD on a 35 yard pass play. Dave Dunn took the ball on a reverse from quarterback Jim Gibbons and hurried down to the five where Hughes made an outstanding catch before trotting over.

JOE LIPKO completed the scoring in the third period on an eight yard run around left end. Dunn missed the points after each touchdown.

Although the defense was barely tested because the Trojans retained possession of the ball most of the game, Keifrider stood out in the secondary and almost intercepted two passes. The Spartans collected only two first downs.

Coach Morrie Grigg used his entire squad of 27 players.

Grady-Miller Team Wins at Aronimink

Steve Grady teamed with W. Ken Miller, member of Aronimink Country club to win that club's annual Pro-Senior tourney against 46 other teams.

The Brooks Country club professional and his partner shot a 67 on the par 70 course. Grady's score was a one-over 71.

Although it was Steve's first time at Aronimink, he found the well-traveled layout to his liking. He eluded all but one of the 300 traps that dot the fairways and approaches to the greens.

Included in his fine score were five birdies.

No handicaps were used as Grady and Miller edge Henry Williams and Jay McGowan for top honors. The Williams-McGowan team came in with a 68.

Hilltop Downs Shamrock, 21-0

Hilltop football team defeated Shamrocks, 21-0, at Far field Sunday afternoon in the season opener for both teams.

Ralph Rhoads and Len Fillman combined to give the Hilltoppers a pair of first half touchdowns on 40-yard scoring passes. In the third period Paul Saltzer ran six yards for the other tally. Rhoads did the passing and Fillman the scoring as the first two touchdowns came on identical plays and covered about the same distance.

The Shamrocks were forced to kick when pushed back to their own one yard line in the third period. The punt was partially blocked and the winners took over on the 15 yard line. A few line thrusts moved the ball to the six and from there, Saltzer went into the end zone. Ken Rhoads kicked the point after each TD.

George Carter was the Rocks best ground gainer as they racked up good yardage but could not score. The Shamrocks' manager Paul Gible is still trying to arrange games for his 130-pound club. He can be contacted by phoning 2899-M.

Old Timers Shift Banquet Date

The Old Timers' banquet, originally scheduled for Tuesday, November 10, has been changed to Thursday, November 12, at the Eagles home, it was announced last night.

The banquet will begin at 6:30 o'clock.

All clubs or groups who are interested in attending the affair are urged to make reservations as soon as possible.

Tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock, the Old Timers membership and banquet committee will meet at the Borough hall, where a report will be made on the progress of securing speakers for the banquet and on memberships.

Pop Myers has requested that all Old Timer ball players be at tomorrow's meeting to pick up their membership tickets.

Wentzel Pigeon Captures Lenape 200-Mile Race

A bird from the loft of Norman Wentzel, of Schwenksville, won the Lenape Pigeon club's Annual 200 Mile Young Bird race yesterday, touring the course in a time of 1069.268 yards per minute.

In second place was a pigeon owned by Herbert Schantz, of East Greenville, and in third, a bird from Emil Klingelhoeffer's loft in Spring Mount.

The birds were released at 7:30 a. m. at Orange, Va., with the weather clear and a light southwest wind. The total number of pigeons in the race was 130 from 14 lofts flying in competition with the other nine clubs of the Lehigh Mountain combine.

The Lenape results are (in yards per minute):

Norman Wentzel	1069.268
Herbert Schantz	1045.517
Emil Klingelhoeffer	1037.234
George Schoenly	1031.506
Bruce Pierce	1029.921

Robert Williams	977.976
Howard Weller	956.040
Thomas Linzenfelter	793.271
Willis Moyer	No report
George Reinert	No report
Norman Arndt	No report

Out of the other 46 entries, 32 had a great deal of faith in Tennessee and cast their votes for the Vols who were dumped by Mississippi State to the tune of 26-0.

Touch Football League Opens Next Saturday

Franklin will play Lincoln at 9:15 o'clock; St. Clair-Washington vs. Rupert at 10:15; and Jefferson's opponent to be announced later. The Jefferson game is scheduled for 11:15.

The past Saturday practice for all teams was held by Ed Good and Alfred Shantz, who will direct the league. Fundamentals, formations, kickoffs and plays were learned in preparation for the opening games.

Although at the drills during the week the turnouts have been good, the Saturday session was a disappointment.

Gerald Hodges, fifth grade teacher at Lincoln, will help coach his school's team, and Harry Weaverling, fifth grade teacher at Jefferson has offered his services for the Jeffs. Shantz is hoping other male teachers will cooperate in this program.

The practice schedule each week will be:

Franklin, Monday 3:30.
Lincoln, Tuesday 3:30.
Washington-St. Clair, Wednesday 2:30.
Jefferson, Thursday 3:30.
Rupert, Friday 3:30.

Trojans Must Be Wary Thursday of Hungry Ridley Township

Ridley Township High football team is playing so far out of character that Pottstown High coach Hceb Meyers is worried the lamb may suddenly revert to its usual role of Lion Thursday night.

After taking two back-breaking defeats, 63-7 and 53-6, Ridley, a team that is used to winning, may bounce out of its rut against the Trojans.

"No team can be as bad as they have been," Meyers said after watching RT get stomped by Lower Merion the past Saturday. "They did everything wrong in the beginning and soon were demoralized. They have a good passer in Don Garling, and if his receivers learn to catch the ball they can be dangerous."

While the Township boys are trying to fight their way out of a hole, the Trojans have a bit of climbing to do of their own, although not quite as steeply as their foes.

After a second half defensive let-down cost the PHS team a decision to Upper Merion the past week, the boys were ready for plenty of tackling drills this week.

"I'm going to put more agile boys on defense this week to see what that solves the problem," he said last night. A bit more dash than bums and bruises. Meyers among the Trojan forwards could have made a big difference in both

Others at Doehler's who go along with Oskiera's 4-1 pick are Ted Vapniorok, Mike Koren, Augie Krause, and John J. Murray, who was born in Brooklyn and will be rooting for the Ebbets field gang as hard as anyone.

READY FOR DUTY — Dick Powell, former Pottstown High athlete, was injured in Saturday's game between Hill school and Perkiomen school. Playing for Perkiomen, Powell was helped from the field when he hurt his hip. Last night he said the doctor diagnosed his injury as a muscle spasm and he will be able to scrimmage again by tomorrow. Powell, a quarterback for PHS, is playing end for the prep school.

READY FOR DUTY — Dick Powell, former Pottstown High athlete, was injured in Saturday's game between Hill school and Perkiomen school. Playing for Perkiomen, Powell was helped from the field when he hurt his hip. Last night he said the doctor diagnosed his injury as a muscle spasm and he will be able to scrimmage again by tomorrow. Powell, a quarterback for PHS, is playing end for the prep school.

Touch Football League Opens Next Saturday

The grade school touch football league will begin regular loop games next Saturday morning at Franklin field annex with three games scheduled.

Franklin will play Lincoln at 9:15 o'clock; St. Clair-Washington vs. Rupert at 10:15; and Jefferson's opponent to be announced later. The Jefferson game is scheduled for 11:15.

The past Saturday practice for all teams was held by Ed Good and Alfred Shantz, who will direct the league. Fundamentals, formations, kickoffs and plays were learned in preparation for the opening games.

Although at the drills during the week the turnouts have been good, the Saturday session was a disappointment.

Gerald Hodges, fifth grade teacher at Lincoln, will help coach his school's team, and Harry Weaverling, fifth grade teacher at Jefferson has offered his services for the Jeffs. Shantz is hoping other male teachers will cooperate in this program.

The practice schedule each week will be:

Franklin, Monday 3:30.
Lincoln, Tuesday 3:30.
Washington-St. Clair, Wednesday 2:30.
Jefferson, Thursday 3:30.
Rupert, Friday 3:30.

Trojans Must Be Wary Thursday of Hungry Ridley Township

Ridley Township High football team is playing so far out of character that Pottstown High coach Hceb Meyers is worried the lamb may suddenly revert to its usual role of Lion Thursday night.

After taking two back-breaking defeats, 63-7 and 53-6, Ridley, a team that is used to winning, may bounce out of its rut against the Trojans.

"No team can be as bad as they have been," Meyers said after watching RT get stomped by Lower Merion the past Saturday. "They did everything wrong in the beginning and soon were demoralized. They have a good passer in Don Garling, and if his receivers learn to catch the ball they can be dangerous."

While the Township boys are trying to fight their way out of a hole, the Trojans have a bit of climbing to do of their own, although not quite as steeply as their foes.

After a second half defensive let-down cost the PHS team a decision to Upper Merion the past week, the boys were ready for plenty of tackling drills this week.

MEYERS HAS BEEN shifting and reshifting his defensive alignments trying to find the right combination.

"I'm going to put more agile boys on defense this week to see what that solves the problem," he said last night. A bit more dash than bums and bruises. Meyers among the Trojan forwards could have made a big difference in both

Pottstown Backs Dodgers 6 to 4 to Beat Yankees in World Series

By ED TAGGERT
The odds favoring the New York Yankees to win the World Series took a drop yesterday. The Gotham handycappers were heard whispering that Pottstown is going solid Dodger.

When the Mercury's sports poll is released, the world's champs are apt to enter tomorrow's opener at Yankee Stadium as the underdog. Just how much effect the opinion of 100 Pottstown baseball fans has on the national odds, remain to be seen.

Pottstown likes the Brooklyn Dodgers 6 to 4. Of the 100 men and women questioned, 69 said the Dodgers would capture the crown and only 40 were willing to string along with the Yanks.

This is contrary to the New York odds which rank the American league team a 6 1/2 to 4 choice. But the Yankee support dropped a half point yesterday and by game time tomorrow the big city boys may see things in a similar light to the Pottstown experts.

Actually 102 persons were contacted in the poll but one said he knew nothing about baseball and the other said he didn't want to know anything about baseball. The latter gent, Paul Callow, 32 North Evans street, said:

"I'm not an anti-baseball fan—rather I'm an anti-baseball fan." Meaning he was sick and tired of hearing the fellows at the plant talk nothing but World Series.

GETTING BACK to those who did voice an opinion, and most were supremely confident, the trend started with plenty of Yankee support but gradually shifted to the Brooklyn side.

The first man to cast a vocal ballot was Nick Szymanski. Although tied up with a bevy of Brookside Country club golf scores to compile, Nick took a brief spell to give a brief prediction—"Yanks, Dodgers, Yanks, Yanks, Yanks."

In complete agreement with Szymanski was Bill Reed, of McCarthy apartments:

"Who'll win the World Series? That's a silly question! Who always wins them? Why those guys are invincible. It'll only takes five games for them to win, too. Yep, the Yanks are my choice."

Even more decisive was Patrolman Daniel Kegel who believes, "The Yanks will wipe 'em out in four straight." The rest of the police force also leaned heavily toward the Stengelmans.

Desk Sgt. Russell Hummel said, "Yanks without a doubt - will go to the limit."

SGT. THOMAS A. LAWLER had this to say, "I'll take the Yanks in six games. I've been a Yankee man since I was a kid. They're money players and money players will take spirit players any time."

As an oldtime friend of Yankee first baseman Joe Collins, Patrolman Lorin Leuthold hopes the Bronx Bombers can win their fifth straight world title.

A dissenting vote came from Patrolman Bill Mars. "Brooklyn will take them in seven. I've never been for those Yankees and I think they're going to get it this year."

If the prediction of motor Patrolman Paul Galloway is correct, he will wear the crown of the "Clairvoyant Cop."

"I'm going to tell you right now it's going to go at least eight

When the big vote from the Doehler-Jarvis plant came in the odds took a definite shift to the Dodgers. Forty-eight men offered an opinion on the Series and 27 favored the Bums.

George and Dennis Wausnock and George Armstrong all picked Brooklyn to win in four straight. The Wausnocks will be in the stands at Yankee Stadium tomorrow rooting for the Brooks to uphold their prediction.

"THE DODGERS have the best hitters, best fielders and best pitchers," says Mike Oskiera. "They'll win in five."

Others at Doehler's who go along with Oskiera's 4-1 pick are Ted Vapniorok, Mike Koren, Augie Krause, and John J. Murray, who was born in Brooklyn and will be rooting for the Ebbets field gang as hard as anyone.

The most general consensus at the D-J plant was the Dodgers in six. In this group were Gillie Steltz, Frank Buttar, Mike Groth, Joe Klaptosky, Dick Reazor, Adam Brauner, Sam Shalaway, Al Sel-domridge, Don Mourar, Bob Pennington, Earl Dierolf, Don As-theimer and Joe Bogdon.

Those who feel the Dodgers will win but will need seven games to do it are George Ruyak, Bill Keim, John Thompson, Sam Wright, Cal Roop and Tom Kaas.

Of the 21 Doehler men who like the Yanks, two could see them taking the crown in four games. Andy Koren and Paul Kohler were

the pair to go the farthest out on the limb.

Slightly more conservative were those who saw it 4-1 for the Yanks. They are Bud Saylor, Russ Franklin and Ralph Dorsey. For the Yankees in six games are J. M. Mace, Carl Christ, George Trolinger, Tony Lucarelli, Chill Garner, Joe Dobry, Keith Jamison, Charlie Schirk and Les Heller.

won too often and I hope they lose."

Mrs. Dick Ricketts Sr.—"I'm unable to speak for my husband but I'm definitely rooting for Brooklyn. I think they'll win in seven games."

Housewife Rose Strange—"I'm from Long Island so how can I root against the Dodgers?"

WAITRESS CASS OSKIERA — "That Pee-wee Reese is such a nice boy, I hope his team wins for a change."

And so the voice of the sports fan is being heard throughout Pottstown. Tomorrow the Mercury sports poll will be continued telling the opinion of the local coaches who should know what they're talking about. Also other men about town will tell why they like the chances of their favorites.

In the meantime watch the odds drop on the Yanks when the big town book makers learn of the Pottstown vote.

Trojans Jayvees Top Upper Merion

The Pottstown High junior varsity football team socked an 18-0 defeat on Upper Merion Jayvees yesterday afternoon to repay the little Spartans for the havoc their older brothers caused at Franklin field the past Thursday night.

JIM GIBBONS
... Directs JVs

The young Trojans had things their own way throughout as they scored twice in the second period and again in the third.

Wayne Hughes scored Pottstown's first TD on a 35 yard pass play. Dave Dunn took the ball on a reverse from quarterback Jim Gibbons and hurled down to the five where Hughes made an outstanding catch before trotting over.

A short time later fullback Don Keifrider capped a scoring drive by going through the line and racing the final nine yards for the touchdown.

JOE LIPKO completed the scoring in the third period on an eight yard run around left end. Dunn missed the points after each touchdown.

Although the defense was barely tested because the Trojans retained possession of the ball most of the game, Keifrider stood out in the secondary and almost intercepted two passes. The Spartans collected only two first downs.

Dave Gillis broke loose for several long runs and Gibbons directed a fine game as he operated at quarterback during the entire contest.

Coach Morrie Grigg used his entire squad of 27 players.

Grady-Miller Team Wins at Aronimink

Steve Grady teamed with W. Ken Miller, member of Aronimink Country club to win that club's annual Pro-Senior tourney against 46 other teams.

The Brookside Country club professional and his partner shot a 67 on the par 70 course. Grady's score was a one-over 71.

Although it was Steve's first time at Aronimink, he found the well-trapped layout to his liking. He eluded all but one of the 300 traps that dot the fairways and approaches to the greens.

Included in his fine score were five birdies.

No handicaps were used as Grady and Miller edged Henry Williams and Jay McGowan for top honors. The Williams-McGowan team came in with a 68.

Hilltop Downs Shamrock, 21-0

Hilltop football team defeated Shamrocks, 21-0, at Far field Sunday afternoon in the season opener for both teams.

Ralph Rhoads and Len Fillman combined to give the Hilltoppers a pair of first half touchdowns on 40-yard scoring passes. In the third period Paul Saltzer ran six yards for the other tally. Rhoads did the passing and Fillman the scoring as the first two touchdowns came on identical plays and covered about the same distance.

The Shamrocks were forced to kick when pushed back to their own one yard line in the third period. The punt was partially blocked and the winners took over on the 15 yard line. A few line thrusts moved the ball to the six and from there, Saltzer went into the end zone. Ken Rhoads kicked the point after each TD.

George Carter was the Rocks' best ground gainer as they racked up good yardage but could not score. The Shamrocks' manager Paul Gible is still trying to arrange games for his 130-pound club. He can be contacted by phoning 2899-M.

Old Timers Shift Banquet Date

The Old Timers' banquet, originally scheduled for Tuesday, November 10, has been changed to Thursday, November 12, at the Eagles home, it was announced last night.

The banquet will begin at 6:30 o'clock.

All clubs or groups who are interested in attending the affair are urged to make reservations as soon as possible.

Tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock, the Old Timers membership and banquet committee will meet at the Borough hall, where a report will be made on the progress of securing speakers for the banquet and on memberships.

Pop Myers has requested that all Old Timer ball players be at tomorrow's meeting to pick up their membership tickets.

Wentzel Pigeon Captures Lenape 200-Mile Race

A bird from the loft of Norman Wentzel, of Schwenksville, won the Lenape Pigeon club's Annual 200 Mile Young Bird race yesterday, touring the course in a time of 10:09.268 yards per minute.

In second place was a pigeon owned by Herbert Schantz, of East Greenville, and in third, a bird from Emil Klingelhoeffer's loft in Spring Mount.

The birds were released at 7:30 a. m. at Orange, Va., with the weather clear and a light southwest wind. The total number of pigeons in the race was 139 from 14 lofts flying in competition with the other nine clubs of the Lehigh Mountain combine.

The Lenape results are (in yards per minute):

Norman Wentzel	10:09.268
Herbert Schantz	10:45.317
Emil Klingelhoeffer	10:57.224
George Schoenly	10:51.506

Pair Tie for 2d Miss Ann Shoup Wins Grid Contest

The ladies can take the bows this week, one of the fair sex invaded the men's world and outgessed the whole bunch to win the Mercury Football Forecaster's contest.

The winner and champion prognosticator is Miss Ann Shoup, Pottstown RD 1. She can pick up her four tickets at the Mercury for Thursday's Ridley township game.

Miss Shoup tied with four others in calling eight winners out of ten. The two ties, one between Alabama and LSU, and the other between Illinois and Nebraska, threw everyone off the track.

With one score right on the button, Penn 13, Vanderbilt 7, the female crystall-ball gazer led the pack.

Tied for the runnerup position were Lee Wamsher, of Douglassville RD 1, and Ken Pace, 163 Grant street. Each was off three points on two games.

Wamsher called eight out of ten correctly, and was close, but not close enough, in calling the Ohio State-Indiana score 34-13. It was 36-12, Ohio State.

PACE WASN'T far off on the Southern Cal - Minnesota game with his guess of 14-7. Southern Cal took it by a 17-7 count.

The whole thing was decided by a flip of the coin in the Mercury office, with Wamsher winning the second place prize, two ducats to the Pottstown-Ridley township tracas. He can pick them up at the Mercury office.

Erwin B. Jenschke, 174 Sunrise lane, followed the other three by calling eight right and by naming the point difference between Oklahoma and Notre Dame, but not the correct score. Jenschke made it 20-13.

Out of the other 46 entries, 32 had a great deal of faith in Tennessee and cast their votes for the Vols who were dumped by Mississippi State to the tune of 26-0.

READY FOR DUTY — Dick Powell, former Pottstown High athlete, was injured in Saturday's game between Hill school and Perkiomen school. Playing for Perkiomen, Powell was helped from the field when he hurt his hip. Last night he said the doctor diagnosed his injury as a muscle spasm and he will be able to scrimmage again by tomorrow. Powell, a quarterback for PHS, is playing end for the prep school.

The actual scores of the past Saturday's games were:

The Bowler's Line

The bowling scores continue to zoom as Pottstown's keglers round out their first month of league rolling. The high average boys are starting to drift near the top of their league's and the flashes-in-the-pan are settling to their usual position below the cream.

Mickey Davis sprouted a nifty 235 game in the Monday night league at the Owls lanes to give the rest of the boys something to shoot at. Nick Bastian came on to roll the best three games for a 602 total in that same league. The Cardinals five combined for a 900 single game, and the Quails were tops for the night with 2642.

Harry Dampman stole the show in the Tuesday-Wednesday night Owls loop with a high triple of 641. Roy Lewis and his 226 game was the best single rolled. The Hooks, 871 and Bluejays, 2535, won the team crown for the night.

Plenty of wood fell before the deliveries of Ronnie Mauger as he scored a 250 single and 615 triple to pace the Eagles' Monday night bowlers. Mauger's Idaho team had the high team single, 884, and triple, 2495, to gain first place in the loop. Mauger's 193.2 average tops the circuit.

Carl Young with 211-204-205—820 led Chicago to a 4-0 win over Penn State to take the lead in the Eagles Tuesday loop. Despite Young's heavy hitting, Harry Dersch with 223 and 631 was the individual leader. Young's Chicago team had the best single game, 937, and Dersch led his Lehigh five to a 2572 total, also a high for the night.

THE STEADY diet of 200 games that Young was on boosted his average to 201.7, and Bob Shaner with 185.3 is second.

Also on the Eagles lanes, in the Friday night league, Al Berthold with 576, high triple, lead California to a 4-0 win over Purdue. Charlie Kulp helped Penn down Bucknell in four straight to gain a tie for first place. Kulp's three-game total was 545. Penn's 874, and California's top three of 2488 were good enough for team honors. Berthold paces the league with a 182 average, just a fraction better than Hen Neiffer's 181.2.

Ed Gallino had a 244 game in the Independent league at Arrow alleys. Bob Ellis edged

Coley Wallace Stops Gilliam

BROOKLYN, Sept. 28 (AP)—Coley Wallace of New York stopped Billy Gilliam of East Orange, N. J., in 2:18 of the fourth round in a scheduled 10-rounder at the Eastern Parkway arena tonight. Wallace, a 12-5 favorite, weighed 204 and Gilliam 211.

The 25-year-old New Yorker floored Gilliam for an eight count with a left hook and right hand combination to the head followed by another series of left and right hook combinations.

Gilliam arose at the count of six but took the mandatory count of eight and then fell backwards into the ropes. Referee Abe Simon stopped the fight and said "That Gilliam's eyes were glazed and that he could not continue."

Transitier lift trucks with PNEUMATIC TIRES

give you

• QUIETER • FASTER operation

indoors and out

- Transitier trucks feature pneumatic tires — greater traction indoors and out — smoother riding — lessens danger of damage to trucks, loads and floors.
- Transitier trucks are light weight, yet heavy duty — ideal for use in elevators, truck loading or on lightweight floors where weight is a factor.

- And best of all, Transitier is the lowest cost pneumatic-tired fork truck on the market.
- Lowest Initial cost.
- Lowest Operating cost.
- Lowest Maintenance cost.

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

AN IMMIGRANT, applying for citizenship papers, was asked by a New York magistrate to name a great living American general. The answer came promptly, "General Electric."

A kindly Cadillac owner spied the driver of an old model Ford in difficulties and offered to tow him to the nearest garage. Along the way, he forgot all about his tow, and ran his speed up to 80 with the flivver careening madly in his wake. A state trooper phoned twenty miles ahead and warned, "Get the driver of a green Caddy coming your way. He's doing a hundred. And that isn't all," added the trooper. "There's a loon in Model-T Ford right behind the Cadillac, blowing his horn and trying to pass!"

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R

L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

AN IMMIGRANT, applying for citizenship papers, was asked by a New York magistrate to name a great living American general. The answer came promptly, "General Electric."

A kindly Cadillac owner spied the driver of an old model Ford in difficulties and offered to tow him to the nearest garage. Along the way, he forgot all about his tow, and ran his speed up to 90 with the flivver careening madly in his wake. A state trooper phoned twenty miles ahead and warned, "Get the driver of a green Caddy coming your way. He's doing a hundred. And that isn't all," added the trooper, "There's a loon in Model-T Ford right behind the Cadillac, blowing his horn and trying to pass!"

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Japanese Minister To Talk Rearmament With US Officials

TOKYO, Tuesday, Sept. 29 (AP)—Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida is leaving for Washington shortly to discuss Japan's rearmament with high US officials, a source close to the Japanese leader said yesterday.

Yoshida is sending a personal envoy in advance. Former Finance Minister Hayato Ikeda leaves today by plane.

Both Yoshida and Ikeda were expected to ask for greater US mutual security aid to speed Japan's national defense against possible Communist aggression.

The high Japanese mission sprang from a weekend accord reached by Yoshida with Mamoru Shigemitsu, leader of the second ranking Progressive party.

The 75-year-old prime minister, who had held back in the past from outright rearmament, reversed his stand and adopted Shigemitsu's "straightforward" rearmament plan.

Returned Servicemen
Here is a splendid opportunity for you if you are 25-30 years old and anxious to start a new and promising career that your "itch" in the service is over.
This salaried position, for which you will be thoroughly trained, involves sales promotion and development in one of the finest and largest companies in the field.
Qualifications: College graduate preferred; previous business or sales experience desirable; interested in sales work; good appearance; ability to meet public easily and impress them favorably.
Many of our present executives started their careers in a similar capacity.
Please tell us what you think we should know about you in a letter to: Mercury Box W-38.

Seventh grade: Gale Anderson, president; Veronica Cisarik, vice president; Corrine Shrack, secretary-treasurer.

Eighth Grade Class Studies US History

By JUDY RHOADS

The boys and girls of the Eighth grade class in history have been studying about "The Building of Our Nation" and "The Search for Trade Leads to America."

One day Miss C. Lane, our history teacher, gave out two copies of 1493 newspapers on Columbus' voyage to America and other articles. The next day, two of the girls gave reports on them. We found them informative.

We also made maps showing trade routes to the east taken by men of great importance. We expect to make and do many more interesting things later on this year.

Spears Help Class Re-enact Cave Life

By NANCY ANN SPOTTS

Miss Delp, history teacher at North Coventry, has been busy teaching history to the Seventh, Tenth and 11th grades.

The Seventh grade has re-enacted cave life by making spears and weapons of early man.

The Tenth grade is studying American history. The pupils have studied some history with European background in order to get the beginning of American history. They also have studied the colonizing of America.

The 11th grade is studying the pre-historic ages. Early centers of civilization also are under scrutiny.

English Class Reviews Punctuation Symbols

By LUCILLE SWAVELEY

Under the supervision of Mr. K. I. Miller the Tenth grade English classes are completing a review of punctuation marks, comma, semi-colons, quotation marks and capitalization.

Books for reports have been selected and the classes have viewed the film "How to Study" and found it both interesting and informative.

History Pupils Dramatize Columbus Sighting Land

By LUCILLE SWAVELEY

The Eighth grade history section one, under the supervision of Mr. K. I. Miller, has been laying ground work for the year's study of the "Building of Our Nation."

As a supplement to the unit "Early Explorations," several members of the class dramatized their ideas of how Columbus might have felt in seeking permission from the king and queen of Spain to search for a route to the East, and how he felt when he discovered land.

Geography Class Studies Typical Small Community

The small community of Bedford is the topic of discussion in the 8-2 Geography class under the direction of Miss C. Lane.

Bedford is typical of the many small communities all over the world, and by looking carefully at one community, it will help us to understand the world better.

We also discussed latitudes and longitudes and found the location of cities on maps. The atlas and statistics were also discussed.

Commercial Course Aiding Norco Pupil Prepare for Goal

By SHIRLEY SCHWEITZER

After considering what I wanted from my high school commercial course, I decided to specialize in bookkeeping. In addition, all Seniors take typing, secretarial training and business English.

From these subjects I expect to obtain the skill and knowledge that will enable me to hold a position in the field of my choice. During my Senior year, I expect to learn to operate the various machines with which I will come in contact when working in an office.

By the time I graduate from North Coventry, I expect to be able to type 50 words a minute or better. I wish to acquire enough bookkeeping and secretarial knowledge so that I will be efficient in doing my job. My goal is to become an accountant.

With the education I am receiving in the commercial department, I, like many commercial students, hope to reach that goal.

Trip to Nation's Capital Prompts Class Queries

By ELIZABETH ANN CLARK

The Seniors' trip to Washington has given them a new insight into world democracy. The first week in class, taught by Mr. C. J. Brey, was spent in general discussion of the trip.

Many questions relative to the trip were analyzed and discussed. In the introduction to this course, emphasis was placed on getting the most help from a text, using the library facilities, how to study effectively, and the technique of problem solving in order to better appreciate the problems facing our American democracy.

Color Film Will Highlight Kiwanis Meeting Tonight

color film on the development of the Dupont company will highlight tonight's meeting of the Pottstown Kiwanis club.

Six Hollywood players are starred in the picture, which depicts the "career of a company and the part it has played in the growth of America," according to Secretary Wilbur O. Cressman.

Two alternative inscriptions will be presented by a committee appointed to select the wording for a club plaque in Memorial park, honoring a branch of the armed forces.

VIENNA, Sept. 28 (AP) — Austria began exporting electrical power to neighboring Italy over a 34-mile high-tension line crossing the eastern Tyrol from the Alpine town of Lienz, Austria, to Pulo in Northern Italy's dolomites.

Deferment Papers Await Area Students

Pottstown area college students can get applications for draft-deferment tests from the headquarters in borough hall of Selective Service Local board 110, it was announced yesterday by R. Ross Longaker, board clerk.

Next date for taking them is Nov. 19. There are college centers throughout the country where they may be taken, the closest one to Pottstown being Ursinus college, Collegeville.

Any boy going to college can take the test — if he has not previously taken it, Longaker reported. Those who failed a previous test cannot try again.

A score of 70 or better can qualify the student for deferment until he completes his four-year course.

Clay tiles in blue and white were used extensively in 17th century Mexico to decorate the living quarters and religious rooms of convents.

Junior High Room Gets New Equipment

By LEE ASSEO

The Tenth grade homeroom of John DeVincentis, Junior High school English instructor, has just received new equipment. This includes modern chairs with an arm for writing. There are special arms on chairs for those pupils who are left handed.

The room also is equipped with a shelf for the pupils' books. There are enough spaces or boxes to accommodate 48 pupils. There also is space on top of the shelf for reference books of all kinds, and 30 new dictionaries have been purchased. The new equipment is expected to relieve crowded conditions and improve the pupils' standard of work.
